

Constitution and Bylaws Committee February 2024 OH5 Cabinet Report

The Constitution and Bylaws Committee (C&BL) met on January 24th by conference call.

1. A proposal to eliminate the International Relations state committee was reviewed and will be submitted to the Council of Governors (COG) for their approval.
2. The Liaison Committee provided Policy Manual changes regarding selection, timing, and election of the Liaison Committee members. These will be submitted to the COG for first reading for inclusion into the Policy Manual.
3. C&BL reviewed language adding a New Voices position within the Global Action Team. This is a Policy Manual change and will be submitted to the COG for first reading in February.

Yours in Service,
