THE CLASS OF '54

Roley City Times August 5, 1959

Roley High Reunion To Feature Rock N. Roley

Description of the event:

Roley City High School Class of 1954 celebrates its fifth reunion this month with a weekend of activities highlighted by a rock & roll concert featuring the class' most illustrious graduate, Rock N. Roley. The two-and-a-half-hour performance will begin at 3:00 p.m., Saturday, August 15, and is expected to fill the Roley City Municipal Auditorium. "Rock has fond memories of Roley High," said the star's business manager, Joseph K. Awledge, "and he's looking forward to seeing many of his old friends again." While the Class of '54 has much to celebrate, it will not eagerly recall the outcome of the 1954 Homecoming game. The Big Game with rival Lowe Valley was lost by the Roley Rollers 24 - 21, the first ever loss to the Lowe Riders. Homecoming was also marred by the tragic death of Becky Sue Lamour, a student at Roley High who was killed near midnight after the Homecoming dance, when the car in which she was a passenger stalled on the railroad tracks at Back Road Crossing and was struck by a freight train. The driver, Rock N. Roley, escaped without injury. Reunion activities will commence at 9:00 a.m. Saturday with a tour of the new gymnasium, after which Principal R. Anton Ravon will make his remarks.

ATTENTION ALL OH5 LIONS!

The Annual Honor Roll nominations are open once again! Any OH5 Lion can nominate any other Lion who meets the criteria.

Every club has those go-getters, people who make a difference in their clubs and their communities. Wouldn't it be nice to recognize a person who is an inspiration to the other members?

Read over the qualifications, fill out the form, and send the completed form to PCC Dave Risen at drisen@insight.rr.com no later than February 15, 2022. The committee will choose 5 recipients from the nominations received.

Submitted a name before that wasn't selected? It's ok to send that name in again – who knows, that person may be selected this time!

We'd like to have at least one candidate from every club. More is fine – there is no limit to how many people are nominated. Please understand that the selection is competitive.

There are great Lions all over our district...we need YOUR help to identify them all!

Something's Cooking with the Tri-Village Lions!

The January/February edition of the Tri-Village Magazine will feature an article about the cookbook created by the Tri-Village Lions in the Fall of 2020. They figured it was one thing all Lions had in common during the pandemic – we all like to eat! The book also includes information, scattered throughout, about the Tri-Village Lions activities and their place in the community. The 112-page, glossy cookbook is now in its second printing. You can purchase a copy ($10) by contacting the club at trivillagelions@aol.com

Reaching Out Anew in the New Year

As much as we may wish it were not true, life post-COVID will not look exactly like life pre-COVID. One area in which Lions expect to see differences is in how we come together. For nearly two years, many people who previously filled their nonworking hours with events and activities instead found themselves embracing their couch and streaming video. As our event schedules ramp up with meetings, service projects, fundraisers, and more, we may find it more challenging to attract attendees for a while—not just because people are wary of large gatherings, but also because they have gotten out of the habit of spending time away from home on the evenings and weekends.

Resuming events as they were in the “Before Time” may not be the best strategy—rethinking them may be wise. At minimum, we need to realize that we aren't just competing with other events, but we are also going head to head against thousands of streaming videos and hundreds of virtual events. We need to take a hard look at our approach. Now is the time to talk to our Lions and community members about what they want. It is possible that virtual components are here to stay. It's also possible that large-scale events transition to more intimate gatherings, or events that once started later in the day or evening may start earlier to better accommodate families.

Don't be surprised or discouraged if you don't see the same levels of participation at your gatherings for a while. BE CREATIVE!!!

He Will Be Missed...

Worthington Noon Lion Robert “Bob” Scheetz, 71, passed away on October 11. Lion Bob, the son of a Lion, was born in Coshocton Ohio. Lion Bob was a resident of Worthington, and a proud Worthington Noon Lion, serving for 2 years as President of the club. He was also involved in the Worthington Schools through district committees and youth sports. He loved the game of golf and was an avid Buckeye fan.

Donations in Bob's name may be made to Central Ohio Lions Eye Bank, 262 Neil Ave #140, Columbus, Ohio 43215.
