

LIONS CODE OF ETHICS

TO SHOW my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

TO SEEK success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

TO REMEMBER that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

WHENEVER a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

TO HOLD friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

ALWAYS to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor, and means.

TO AID others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE CAREFUL with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

Mid-South Lions Sight and Hearing
Mission Statement

Mid-South Lions is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization, which provides comprehensive sight and hearing care to needy individuals from Arkansas, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee at no charge to the patient. There are no age guidelines to qualify for service, only indigent guidelines established by the federal government. Mid-South treats nearly all types of sight or hearing disabilities.

World Services for the Blind

"To enable people who are blind or visually impaired to function independently and to live full, productive lives with dignity and self-respect, and to promote a positive public awareness of blindness."

Arkansas Lions Eye Bank and Laboratory

The Arkansas Lions Eye Bank and Laboratory was finally established. Its main goal from the beginning has been to provide quality corneas for those in need in the state of Arkansas. The eye bank got off to a slow start with little or no assets. The first Executive Director, Ms. Medine Watson worked long days (and even nights) to get everything in place. A Lions Board was established, volunteer enucleator were recruited, and the necessary equipment to operate the eye bank was eventually acquired.

.Liberty Day

Liberty Day Liberty Day is a non-profit, non-partisan volunteer effort to educate Americans about the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution. Our goal is to come alongside educators, parents, civic organizations, and government officials to provide them with ways to reach our youth with the facts of our founding documents.
