

Zone E-9 Newsletter August 2017 ZC Margie Walters "Serves" the News

Welcome to all new Lions!

Monthly Reports: Remember your reports need to be submitted by the 20th of each month.

MD19 dues: Send by August 31.

Fall Convention: Vancouver B.C., October 12-14. Registration is available in the Border Crossing.

Cabinet Meeting: DG Harry Lippincott conducted the District E cabinet meeting and retreat. It was very productive and energized those attending. The goals for clubs in our district included increasing officer excellence awards and increasing membership for clubs across the district, by 141 members.

CAMP STIX: Fundraiser On Saturday, August 26 from 10:00-12:00 at the Garland Theater. One time showing of a local film A Mermaids Journey.

Legacy Project: There is still time to give back to our communities in this endeavor.

Centennial Service Challenge: We will continue to serve in the areas of Hunger, Environment, and Vision. The challenge has added more specifically pediatric Cancer and Diabetes. Clubs participating will receive a patch for their banner. Report to MYLCI.

Bed Races: Liberty Lake will hold their annual Bed Race fundraiser on September 22. It is a fun event. For information contact Mary Jo Buckingham.

Romp and Roar: Chewelah Valley Lions will host a Golf tournament and Scramble on September 16, 2017. Registration form is attached.

Upcoming events: I would like to share your activities and projects, so please send a list of your yearly events, so I can post them in the monthly newsletters.

LCIF: Every club is encouraged to have a LCIF club coordinator. Report your coordinator to MYLCI.

MYLION APP: For more info: www.mylion.com Try it today!

HELP!!! If your club needs help with any activities in the next year, contact me and I will try to assist you.
