Purpose: To establish procedures for the presentation of Resolutions Regarding Multiple District 27 that will be on the ballot at the MD convention:

- A. Each year, various resolutions are presented for voting at the Multiple District 27 Convention.
- B. It shall be District policy to require a preliminary report no later than the fourth Cabinet meeting of the Lionistic year from the District's representative on the Multiple District Resolutions Committee or his/her designee. This report shall cover those resolutions submitted up to that time.
- C. The District shall also require a final report from the representative or his/her designee at the May District meeting. The District meeting shall make a recommendation to the Lions of the District as to whether they should approve or disapprove each resolution.
- D. For any MD27 resolutions that are approved, the Constitution and Bylaws chairman should cross reference the 27 B2 Constitution and Bylaws for compliance.
