2023 Convention Update

6 April 2023

A few reminders, some updates, and some new stuff....

Reminders:

- Four Points by Sheraton Hotel is located at 285 Kings Street East, Kingston ON.
- Anyone attending the conference must be registered. Click here for a link to your registration form. Deadline for meals has expired and you will need to book your own hotel room.
- Underground parking is available at the hotel for your convenience. Elevators are centrally located within the parking garage. Parking fees are not included in your registration or hotel room costs.
- Doors open at 3:00 pm on Friday April 21st for you to pick up your registration kit and complete your voting credentials.
- Bring your club banner to show your club pride! All banners will be displayed within the Ballroom for all to see and admire.
- Dress code for the evening banquet is semi-formal and Past District Governors have the option to wear their formal garb.
- There will be raffles, auctions, Lions memorabilia and donation jars available for your participation. Make sure to load up your wallet 😊.

Updates:

- Rooms are now assigned for the learning sessions. The Ballroom will hold the Social Media Workshop, The British American Room will hold the Club Dynamics Session, the Gibraltar Room will hold the Fund Raising and the Granite Room will hold the Membership Session.
- On Saturday take part in the 2023 Convention Service Project as we prepare and package 100 Activity Backpacks for children undergoing cancer treatments.

New Stuff:

- Governor Sue Tunnicliffe is building a slide show to include pictures of Lions from across the district being Lions. This slide show will run all weekend long to inform and entertain. Please send Governor Sue e-pictures of your clubs' service activities, social gatherings, or milestone awards. Governor Sue's e-mail is susanetunnicliffe@gmail.com
