

Where Do The Flags Go?

It happens that someone will ask about the correct placement of the flags. There is a protocol for flag placement and it is not advisable to have them in the wrong position.

Someone will likely point out the discrepancy to you.

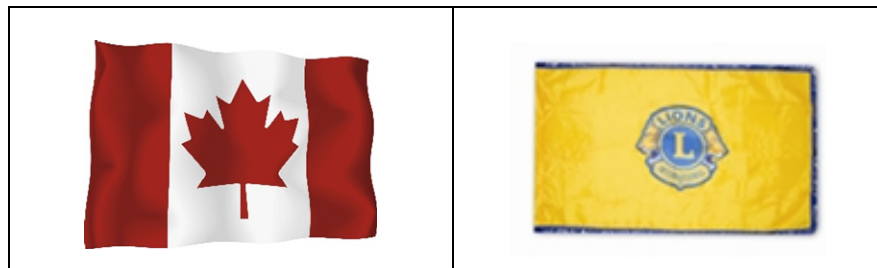

The Place of Honour is always reserved for the Canadian flag.

This position is not yielded for so-called courtesy or any other reason.

The clips below reflect correct placement from the spectator's view, left to right, facing flag display.

Two Flag Display:

Three Flag Display:

Canada in the centre in Place of Honour, American flag on left, and Lions flag on the right

If more than three flags are displayed the Canadian flag would be positioned on the left. General order of display: Having placed the Canadian flag in the place of honour, other flags should be displayed in the following sequence –

National Flags

Provincial Flags

Organizational (i.e. Lions) Flags
