CHILDHOOD CANCER

For the seventh consecutive year, MLB (major league baseball) and its Clubs raised awareness for childhood cancer during all games on Friday, September 2, for a special league-wide day in home ballparks. MLB's "Childhood Cancer Awareness Day," held during Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in collaboration with Stand Up To Cancer, combined a visual and ceremonial demonstration of support for the cause with outreach to local hospitals treating young patients in their communities. during all games.

On Friday, September 2, all on-field personnel, including players, managers, coaches, and umpires wore gold ribbon decals and wristbands during all games.

For July and August 2022 LCIF has awarded 4 childhood cancer related grants totaling US $200,534.00.
