

Youth

Service Ideas and Resources

California Lions Foundation/ LCIF Grants

<https://www.lionsclubs.org/en/start-our-approach/grant-types>

Vision Care	Hunger Relief	Diabetes Awareness	Cancer Support	Environmental Stewardship	Mentorship Programs	Educational Initiatives	Community Outreach	International Exchange Programs	Creative Projects	Important Considerations
Collect used eyeglasses for donation to those in need.	Organize food drives for local food banks.	Conduct diabetes education workshops.	Raise funds for cancer research organizations.	Participate in clean-up drives at parks or local waterways.	Pair younger students with Leo mentors to provide guidance and support.	Host scholarship competitions for high school students.	Volunteer at local senior centers or homeless shelters.	Host international Leo visitors and participate in cultural exchange activities.	Organize a "Peace Poster Contest" to promote global understanding.	Tailor to local needs: Identify the most pressing issues in your community to focus your service projects.
Host vision screening events at schools or community centers.	Volunteer at soup kitchens or food pantries.	Participate in diabetes awareness walks/runs.	Organize "Relay for Life" events.	Plant trees and promote tree planting initiatives.	Organize leadership development workshops for youth	Conduct literacy programs for children in need.	Organize charity events like car washes or bake sales.	Participate in youth leadership conferences at the regional or international level.	Create awareness campaigns through social media or art projects.	Engage with the community: Partner with local organizations and businesses to maximize impact.

Vision Care	Hunger Relief	Diabetes Awareness	Cancer Support	Environmental Stewardship	Mentorship Programs	Educational Initiatives	Community Outreach	International Exchange Programs	Creative Projects	Important Considerations
Raise awareness about eye health and hygiene practices.	Plant community gardens to provide fresh produce.	Promote healthy lifestyle choices through community outreach.	Host awareness campaigns about cancer prevention.	Educate the community about recycling and conservation practices.		Organize educational field trips and guest speaker events	Participate in community beautification projects		Develop community service projects with a focus on local needs.	Promote volunteerism: Encourage active participation from all Leo members.
										Develop leadership skills: Provide opportunities for Leos to take on leadership roles within projects.

 Created by Lion Maryah Tucker

Last update April 17, 2025