NEW LION'S YEAR

"IN A WORLD OF SERVICE" By Virginia Rodriguez PCC

It is that time of the Lions year that a new group of Lions take the reins of International, District, State, and Club level to carry on the motto of "WE SERVE". Our International President this year is Wayne A. Madden from Auburn, Ill. His theme for 2012-2013 is "IN A WORLD OF SERVICE". He calls on Lions too not only celebrate our world of service but to expand our impact, rising up to meet new challenges.

As of July 1st the following Governors were officially given their responsibilities to their new positions: District O: Lawrence "Larry" Wibben from Tulsa Brookside Lions, District K: Billy Thompson from Ardmore Lions, District L: John "Wes" Williams from Lawton NE Lions, District A: R. Deane Wymer from Fairview Lions, and District H: Robert McMasters from OKC Northwest Lions. They will lead the Lions not only in their respective districts but in our state as well. CONGRATULATIONS to this group of Governors for 2012-13. As Lions of Oklahoma let's all give them our support with dedication to service and work to increase our membership.

Among the many projects that we can give our assistance is by expanding our impact and join the Reading Action Program that is one of President Madden's service projects. By this we can volunteer for a reading program at our libraries, or in our schools. Another way we can assist our governors is promoting the International Peace Poster Contest, which is an annual art contest for kids, encouraging young people to express their visions of peace. The theme of the 2012-13 Peace Poster Contest is "IMAGINE PEACE". Students, ages 11,12 on 13 on November 15, are eligible to participate. Instructions for the contest can be found on line www.lionsclubs.org. A Kit can be ordered through Club Supply Sales Department at International Headquarters. The cost of the kit is $10.95 plus shipping, handling and taxes. Your club must purchase a kit for your school to participate in this Art Contest. Last year we had representation from each of our districts.

One of our projects that are offered is our state Adult and Youth Speech Contest. The adult contest is open to all Lions EXCEPT prior contest winners, District governors or Past District Governors. The Youth contest is open to all 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th graders, including Home-Schooled students. The Governors, each year pick a theme, which will co-in-side with the International Presidents Theme. This year the topics are: Adult: How does "A WORLD OF SERVICE" challenge my generation. The Youth topic is: What does "A WORLD of SERVICE" mean to me? Instruction for the contests can be found on the Oklahoma Lions Web Site

www.oklahoma lion.net

Our Dr. Eugene S. Briggs Memorial Scholarship is offered to students who are residents of Oklahoma and are in need of financial assistance. This is offered to any College or Career Technology Program. It is not too early to think about this for the 2013-14 school year. Further information can be obtained on the Oklahoma Lions Web site and instructions can be found on the Oklahoma City Community Foundation www.occf.org.

There are many projects that Lions Clubs can participate and all are highly encouraged.

I challenge you to rally around our 2012-2013 Governors and make this one of our most productive Lion Years:

REMEMBER: "Leaders are at their BEST when people get behind them".

What did he say...that can't be true? Did I hear him right?

Why would you want to read an article written by an ex trucker. How does anything I might say be of importance to anyone except my dog Dixie? She hangs on my every word hoping that, "treat", "car-ride", or "let's go for a walk" will be somewhere in the sentence. You see, Dixie has very "selective" hearing. Mary, my wife, says I

I am truly hard of hearing, but she still isn't buying that. You know, part of that may be true and as Lions we sometimes only want to hear what "we" think is the right thing for our club. We don't want to hear about the new ideas from our new members or LCI. After all what do they know; we've been Lions for years and we have always done it this way. Yes our membership is declining, and the number of clubs is shrinking, and we are getting too old to do as many of the projects that we once did. But why should we change. Well what we need to do is turn up the volume on our hearing aids, pay atten-"selective" hearing. That I heation, and make sure we are not guilty only those things I want to hear. I even of "selective" hearing. Start out by iniwent to an audiologist to get proof that tiating the Club Excellence Program in your club. We need to listen so that we will survive and prosper as Lions. You never know....someone might just throw us a bone. And as Paul Harvey would say "That's the rest of the story"

Are You a "No-Show" Lion?

By Troy Jenkins, Oklahoma Lions Service Foundation, Executive Director

"Eighty percent of success is showing up." - Woody Allen

As many of you know, the Oklahoma Lions Service Foundation held its first annual concert last weekend. The music was fantastic! This was probably the best group of musicians I have seen live at one event. Most of them donated their in three different communities. I can time; one act even donated half of the proceeds from his merchandise sales to the OLSF. The facility was great as well, and was nice and cool. The only thing that was missing to make this event a complete success was you!

As with any first year events, there were a lot of lessons learned. For example, if I had known it was going to be 109 degrees outside, I would have really pushed the fact that the concert was indoors and air-conditioned! Given another opportunity, I would probably market the event a little differently. As far as the Lions were concerned, I mentioned the event in nearly 50 club visits. I also sent emails with the flyer to the outgoing club Presidents and Secretaries before the end of the year, and the incoming Presidents and Secretaries once the new year started. I realize this left out a handful of clubs, but figured it was the most efficient way to spread the word. You can imagine my surprise when so few Lions attended or supported the event. Even worse, many Lions said they did not know anything about it. One message I received from a club officer told me that nobody in his club would be interested in tickets. From the looks of the message, he made that determination himself, and didn't bother his club with finding out for sure whether or not this was the case. It is difficult to spread the word if a handful of Lions act as gatekeepers and do not disseminate the information any further.

Regardless, this is a great lesson for all of us as Lions. On Tuesday, I had the privilege of acting as the Club Excellence Program Facilitator for the OKC West Side Lions Club. A couple of we should be blowing it out in both our the items discussed were the need to make sure that our service projects were still relevant, and the need to have fun in our service. The truth in these items cannot be underestimated, and work the same with fundraising. We need to make sure that we are getting the word out for everything that we do. We need to make sure that we are sharing with our entire membership to see if there are better ideas out there. We need to make sure that we are having fun being Lions!

We need to give our members a reason to differently? show up!

When I joined the Lions, it seemed to be a great extension of my desire to give back to the community. I had been involved in community service since my early 20s, volunteering at a zoo, serving on boards, and serving as a Big Brother still remember how excited I was to be a part of an organization with such a great history and tradition of service. The more I got involved, and the more I learned about Lions in general, the more I realized I had made the right decision. As in most clubs, the 20/80 rule was in effect: 20% of the people do 80% of the work. To put it another way, a lot of members simply weren't showing up, be it for fundraisers, service events, etc. Now that I have had the opportunity to visit so many other clubs, I realize this is not a unique situation. There are a lot of doing it our way, not their way. When "No-shows."

Now I realize that this is a volunteer organization. And in fairness, most of my time in Lionism has been spent in outside sales. Any of you that know somebody in outside sales knows that we can be very flexible in our schedules, which makes it really easy to sign up for projects. Having said that, I would ask you to consider this: Are you giving all you can, considering your commitment to your job and your family, and to your own need for "me-time," to serving your community? Do you feel like the service you are currently providing to your community is outdated? Do you feel like you have a say in the activities of your club? Are you having fun? Are you showing up as a Lion? If the answer to any of these is "no" it might be time for some reflection and evaluation.

Lions, especially in Oklahoma, are a wonderful group. The good that we do in our local communities, on the state level, and internationally, still amazes As Lions, we have access to so many resources and name recognition service and our fundraising. So if you are a "No-show" Lion, what is holding you back? Do you stand behind your service projects? If not, do you have a recommendation on how you could better serve your community? Do you not have the time to work a project? If so, do you contribute financially in lieu of your ability to work or attend? Are your ideas falling on deaf ears? If so, what are you doing to change that? Are you having fun? If not, what would you do

As I have mentioned in these pages for the last few months, we are at a crossroads in Lionism. It is time to realize the lions of people in need. I challenge opportunities we have before us, and let go of the past as we focus on the future. A few years back, Past Council Chair Ron Schulz wrote an article about this very thing. The following is an excerpt (very slightly edited):

ing on the wall! We must modernize. We now shop on the internet, such as eBay and other electronic sources. These suppliers exist because the public demands a new way of life. Younger people will not join our club of old timers who have "been there, done that, and tried it once and it did not work." We expect them to work for us and make programs and projects successful for us you keep doing what you have done, you are going to keep getting the same results! Do Oklahoma Lions wish to become a Studebaker, an Oldsmobile, a General Motors, or a Montgomery Ward? Let's step into the future and do things the modern way, do programs and projects which fit today's needs. Try it; you might like it! Nothing ventured, nothing gained!

world is evolving. We must evolve with it if we hope to keep pace and continue to make a difference in the lives of milclubs this year to seek self improvement and always be receptive to new ways of doing business and new traditions.'

The point is this: If you are a "No-Show" Lion, why are you a "No-Show" Lion. What would it take to get you to partici-Wake up Oklahoma! Read the handwrit- pate more? What would it take to make a bigger impact in your community? What would it take to raise more funds for your community and our state projects? What is keeping you from bringing in new members? What is holding you back from serving? I encourage all of you to consider this, and take the appropriate steps to address the issues. Once we have done this, individually, and as the Lions of Oklahoma as a whole, we can right this ship! We can increase our service to our community, our state, and everywhere else. We can enhance our fundraising at the local and state levels. We can increase our membership. Most importantly, we can embrace our motto -"We Serve!"

"IN A WORLD OF SERVICE"

The District Governor Elect Seminar training and International Convention in Busan, South Korea was a great success. I got to meet Lions from all over the globe. The theme for this year is "In a World of Service" and "In a World of Service", one name stands above all others in Service - Lions Clubs International - WE SERVE. ask each Lion in District 3-O clubs to demonstrate their dedication to service, think outside the normal realm of club activities and service projects. There are millions of Americans that can not read. We can help promote literacy through the Reading Action Program. More about this program will be in future Newsletters. Increasing Lions membership is paramount, we will soon complete 95 years of service. We are losing the race against membership growth, retaining members and recruiting new members must work hand in hand. I ask each club to do a Club Assessment to help with retention. Actively recruit new members. There must also be more club interaction, and club participation at training meetings, cabinet meetings, and district convention. Therefore, I will promote the Club Excellence Process, and MD3 Governor Contest. The world is changing, and evolving. We must change with it in order to make a difference in the lives of millions of those in need. One very good way is through the Club Excellence Program. As lions we must continue to meet the needs of our community. I have scheduled a large number of club visits over the coming months. New Members (reported for Jun 2012)

I recently had the pleasure of traveling to Busan South Korea to attend the District Governor Elect Training for the Lion year 2012-2013. While I was there I witnessed how widespread were the tentacles of service to the local communities which began in Chicago by a small group of business men in 1917. It is amazing how a good idea can take root and be so successful in the arena of vision and of creativity.

The throbbing undulating Masses of humanity was both exhilarating and thrilling. There were so many smiling faces and warm greetings and hugs it was almost overwhelming. I met Lions from Newfoundland to China and Lions From Canada to the sunny isles of the Caribbean. Although there were instances of language barrier we managed to communicate with gestures and bows and smiles.

Greetings District 3-A Lions:

A "Thank You" to our current PDG VCC Arlene who has left so much that is positive for your new Governor and our 3-A Clubs. It is much more than expected - and she remains with as our Advisor throughout the year. Yes, we have positives and challenges as well. Every Club needs new members, at the same time we need to be able to retain our current numbers, and keep them involved. While doing this we must support our important Statewide entities; our Lions Club Boys Ranch in their additional housing expansion; our Oklahoma Lions Club Eye Bank and their fund raising efforts for their new building; our Oklahoma especially in the Summer. They rent Lions Mobile Health Screening Unit and utilizing it to a maximum. each Club has it's own community obligations that have to be met. has certain needs that only we Lions in each and every Club can provide! If we can do the little things in each of our Lions communities, this will support the membership needs of LCI. How do we satisfy all these real needs in our District and in our State? As we "Five Oklahoma DGEs" attended classes in Busan the past few weeks, we along with an additional 750 DGEs from over 4,000 Clubs from 207 countries have experienced a revival in spirit. We were taught to not be afraid to "think outside the box." We learned that a positive "Attitude" is necessary; a definite "Commitment" is Service for the Blind, Scholarship essential and the "Focus" will allow for the completion of any project! From the few Club reports received to date (we're still getting our info flow functional), the activities of each has evidence of Commitment and Focus, the Attitude had to have been in place from the very beginning.

Our NORTH ENID LIONS Newsletter sent to members is one of the top in our State. GOALS

The District Governors Team, consisting of myself from The Village, st VDG Tom Cummings from Cushing, 2nd VDG Dawn Miller from OKC

Greetings to all the Lions of 3-H Worth Side, and GMT Coordinator Frank Davis from Guthrie, met on March 3, 2012 to look at the Nine club. Year Study of Membership Trends, to pay close attention to every club which all of us to work together in behalf of our was in existence July 1, 2003 or chartered since, with a special attention to those who had their Charter Cancelled.

> We came up with 14 Goals aimed at supporting four numbers. We will Charter Four New Clubs with a total of 100 New Members.

> To achieve these goals, we will need a number of Lions to help out. To start with, we need 2 Lions to scout out locations for two clubs. We will need 2 Sponsoring Lions Clubs who will provide 1 or 2 Certified Guiding Lions to be a part of a 4 Lions team for each new club. Then we need an Extension Workshop Coordinator plus 9 - 12 Lions for each new club. All of this will take place this fall. Thus we need the help of about 35 Lions

Following that we are looking for 5 to 9 Lions to attend a Level II Extension Workshop. Each of these Lions will promise to organize and charter a new Lions Club within the next 18 months, of August 11, 2012, District 3-H Cabinet which 2 will be in the Spring. These Lions will be trained in a one day event to do the work of the LCI Extension specialist. Of course they will need the help of even more Lions.

Goal 3 is that the 28 existing Lions Clubs will bring in 150 New Lions. While this looks large, it can be done. We did it in 2003-04 and came close in 2004-5 and 2005-6. The secret to accomplish this is for all of us to ask people we know and meet if they would like to join a Lions Club. Just adding our spouses on the Family Plan would more than reach this goal. We have a goal to train 7 Lions to help with this. They will go to two Lions Clubs each, especially smaller clubs, and both train them to call on people and then go with them in doing that calling

Goal 4 is that the existing 28 clubs will decrease their average number of drops to 117 Lions. Just last year we only dropped 113. This goal can be reached. We have already trained Lions to conduct the Club Excellence Process Workshop with a goal of having at least 10 of our clubs complete this workshop this year. OKC West Side Lions Club will be starting this process July 24th. The Club Excellence Process will help Lions Clubs look at what they are doing and plan on how they can get better. Results from clubs who have already competed this process reveals that they both recruit more new members and reduce the number of drops because their members feel better about their

News From Oklahoma Boys Ranch

by Colleen Fowler

We just got back from a great week with our guys. We went to Branson, We have found that the 7 hour drive is him scream and we have great picjust right. We let the boys stay up late tures. The boys were tired and happy the night before...rouse them up early and after supper we played in the poo the night before...rouse them up early and they sleep for 6 hours, just about the right time to stop at Lambert's and throw some rolls. Then they are awake and full when we drive that last hour to Branson.we have developed a relationship over the years with the folks that run the Amaze Inn. It is a great hotel with rooms with 3 queen size beds. We get one for the boys and something about being away from the a smaller room for us. The security house that seems to enhance our be guard will wake us up if anyone leaves ing. I am so grateful to Bryan for their room. Our goal is to get them so understanding how important these tired during the day, they have no energy to go anywhere during the night. We had tickets for the Showboat Branson Belle that night and the boys enjoyed the live show and supper. It was a learning opportu-lity to talk about how paddle steamers few weeks, the memories are still work and how the boats had shows and gambling for the travelers in the old days. Wednesday morning we left scripture that says..."and she ponearly to go to Silver Dollar City. We had a blast and it was a great time for Bob to have some fun with the fellow on the coasters! They loved hearing at the hotel till bedtime. Thursday was fun at Whitewater and a tour of Branson landing and Table rock Lake We ate and played and made some memories that will last for a while. takes budgeting and planning, Both o which I have learned from Jack and Roberta at the Meadows.
