Fundraisers

How does your club raise funds to support the projects that are not just labors of love? There can be no doubt that we spend part of our volunteer service time raising funds. Our time is valuable even if we call it free time. Most of us don't want to find out that our efforts did not capture the imagination or participation or donations of the public. Very few Lions or Leo Clubs operate solely as hands-on service providers. As we set out to build a better community and a better tomorrow, we seldom can do so without some consideration for fundraising. Clubs that are involved in all types of community service require them to raise money to support community projects. Do you have annual events that your club and your community look forward to every year? Many clubs have become known for their annual fruit sales, Christmas tree sales, spaghetti dinners and pancake breakfasts. These fundraisers are profitable and are often anticipated by the community. Nevertheless, many clubs get into a rut and never budge beyond the tried and true fundraiser. It often helps us to get out of that same old fundraising rut that has become our worn path to the bank if we simply look at the fundraisers that have been successes for other Lions Clubs.

Do you need novel ideas-something to break the monotony of the fundraisers your members have worked at for years? Don't be afraid to venture outside your club's fundraising comfort zone and try something new and exciting, not only for the club but for the community as well. By putting the fun into your fundraisers it will strengthen the bond between club members and the community, will encourage new members to join, and will be remembered by all with fondness, a smile and a chuckle! If feelings of satisfaction are our measure of a success, then fundraisers are successful if they provide the service-minded men and women with a sense of involvement in a satisfying project. If bettering our communities is our measure of a success, then fundraisers are successful if our Lions and our community can take pride in the results.

We Serve . . . ? Who? What? Where? When? Why? . . . and How?

By Lion Brett Crawley, Interim Director, Oklahoma Lions Service Foundation

You. When is the last time you thought about the We Serve, Who, What, Where, When, Why and How? as it applies to you! This season, take time to reflect; take time to renew; and take time to recommit to We Serve for yourself as well as for your fellow Lions.

There is only one of three types of thought processes that every individual chooses for themselves: cost, cause, or cure. You either count the COST and it is always too high. You resolve it is not your CAUSE generally because of what it could cost you. You desire to be part of the CURE, and so you only look at the How Can I? In any case, your chosen thought process is the path you approach life. If you have never thought about this, please take some time this holiday season to do so, or rethink it, and start the New Year with a fresh outlook.

Counting the cost is a negative approach used by those who are looking for a way not to be able to do something. "I cannot do that because I do not have the time, or the money." "It could cost me my life, my reputation, my whatever." Counting the cost results in an ending that you have already chosen in your sub-conscious, either through your own training or another person's negative training. Anyone can come up with a cost that is too high. But, what about those who want to retain their positive outward persona while they back away respectfully?

The cause is another negative pathway; it allows us to do what we want to do, without us feeling selfish about ourselves. This is a path I think we learned in our teenage years and we just got stuck as adults in the old COP-OUT path. It's not my cause. I give at the office (LOL)! I cannot do that because: I'll lose sleep, I'm too small, I'm too big, I'm too fat, I'm too skinny, I'm not smart enough, I'm too dumb, I'm too old, I'm too young, I'm not trained, I don't have the money (cost again), I don't have the time, BECAUSE I DON'T WANT TO! We can all come up with why we cannot do something we don't want to do.

So, if cost and cause are the thought processes that lead to a negative, what thought process path could anyone ever take that results in a positive outcome?

It is funny, when people really want to do something, they always ask themselves, how can I? I call this the CURE thought process. When we really want to do something we will find a way! You have heard this all of your life, so why would you ever choose to count the cost or the be-cause paths?

Start with How can I? How can I be part of the cure? How can I be part of a positive solution? How can I achieve success with my abilities? And then ask, "help me, please?" instead of spiraling down the negative process path of why I cannot do it.

Ask yourself, as an Oklahoma Lion, "How can I be part of the CURE?" And success is just an answer away. It really is that simple. With over 4,000 Lions in Oklahoma alone, I am sure we can come up with the positive answer.

Lions can serve, and so we do serve; the question is, have you forgotten who you are, who we are, and more importantly, what we can do together? This season, take time to reflect, time to renew, and time to recommit to "We Serve." For yourself, for your fellow Lions, and for our worldwide community!

Happy Holidays, and CHEERS to Lion Success in Oklahoma!

District 3-O News

Hello Fellow Lions. As I write this, I am really excited about November. Yes, November is the month for District 3-O Convention, Thanksgiving and the start of another wonderful holiday season. Trudy and I have been visiting clubs and staying on the go. Since August we have visited 26 clubs in all. We do not have scheduled club visits in December; we have holiday commitments and family as well as our Lions family to celebrate with. We plan to resume our visits in January 2014.

By the time this comes out my district convention will be done and Trudy and I will be able to take some deep breaths, regroup and forge on to the rest of my year as District 3-O governor. This year has been a blessing and we love you all.

Trudy and I take this opportunity to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. We hope your Thanksgiving was happy and pray everyone stays safe. God bless and keep Oklahoma Lions safe and strong; we serve!

Happy Holidays

The end of another calendar year is upon us. Most of us are very busy from now until the New Year. It is a time to get together with relatives and friends, to attend parties, and to take time to reflect upon the many blessings we receive by serving as Lions. It is a time to serve those in need in our communities and through out the world. It is certainly more blessed to give than to receive. Many of our clubs have special projects during this holiday season by helping those needing food and clothing. Some clubs give needy children presents. All in all, it's a great time to give and to enjoy our blessings.

The month of November was especially busy for me as I was traveling to many of our clubs. I was trying to visit most of our clubs before December. As of the first of December I have visited 32 clubs, so I only have 4 clubs left to visit. I will have to visit these clubs next year, as I could not get dates cleared to attend these clubs. These visits have been very enjoyable; Lions are great people. I have been pleased with the wide variety of projects and with our club members' zeal to serve.

Club Reports

Ardmore: Provided eyeglasses and eye exams for 4 persons in need and delivered 283 pairs of used eyeglasses to the state office for recycling. Held a garage sale fundraiser, and welcomed new Lions Teresa Myers and Wendi Whipkey.

Gore/Webbers Falls: This is one of our smaller clubs but a very active one. They recently held their Rib Sale; they smoked 250 sides of ribs to sell, sold 400 plate lunches and 200 hot links. They raised about $7,000. They recently donated $500 to the band and gave two scholarships of $350 each.

Hugo: They will hold their annual Radio

3-K Convention

I just received an e-mail stating that our honored guests will be ID Lawrence Dicus and Jane, from Whittier, California. Let's give them an Oklahoma welcome, and we look forward to spending a couple of days with them. The convention will be held at the Lake Murray Lodge just south of Ardmore. The activities will start Friday evening and continues all day Saturday, January 24-25, 2014. The convention will be a good learning experience and a lot of fun! Be sure and get your registration form in as soon as possible. Plan to attend; you will have a great time.

Auction December 7. They receive great support from the community as the merchants donate many items to be auctioned at this event. This enables them to give twenty (20) $500 scholarships.

Sallisaw: They are getting ready for the Lions Club/DHS foster kids' Christmas Party. Every year the Lions have special entertainment for approximately 170 children, and they give gifts to each child. One of the Lions dresses as Santa Claus.

Wanette: They are just completing their annual Turkey Shoot, an annual event for over 30 years. The money raised goes to Lions projects and a Christmas dinner for the community.

Wilburton: They purchased 2 pairs of eyeglasses, and they donated $50 to the Sullivan Scholarship in memory of PDG Chris Butler who recently passed.

Monthly Reports

Monthly reports are essential to know whether our district is growing and to spot areas that need our attention. Try to file an MMR for your club each month with LCI, and also file a service report of your activities. If you want to be sure your service activities are in our newspaper, e-mail them to me. I hope you have filed the 990-EZ postcard with the IRS. It was due November 15.

District 3-L

Governor
Sue Thompson

Optimism!

I have always been a "glass half full" kind of person; maybe sometimes even Pollyanna-ish! It has just always seemed to me that you should remain cheerful and optimistic until it becomes clear that there is a real reason to be pessimistic, fearful or gloomy. With Thanksgiving approaching there is much to be thankful for, even with all the bad things that happen every day, such as the typhoon in the Philippines. But I am thankful that there are so many people in the world who rush to help as well as donate, and, of course, Lions are among the first to step up. What if they were not there? There would be far less help available. Even though our membership is down in the U.S., membership continues to grow in other parts of the world; sometimes we become so wrapped up in our local focus that we forget that Lions are needed and indeed are very active all over the world. Thank God for all of them! We are now in 208 countries on every continent except Antarctica and I'm sure we will be there soon!

I heard a quote this week: "Where optimism rules, opportunities never cease." Therefore, with my usual optimism I am going to see our declining membership as an opportunity! Just think how many people in our district are NOT Lions! Remember our +1 club: please invite just one person to share in your excitement for Lionism! What? You are not excited? Then you need help! Please call on your Region or Zone Chair, your Vice District Governors or me! You can find all of our contact information on the Oklahoma Lions website: www.oklahomalions.org. There are lots of resources available, so please don't wait until your club needs CPR to ask for help.

Thanks so much to the Frederick Lions for hosting our cabinet meeting. Everyone enjoyed it, and if you have never been to Frederick, put it on your map! The Lions Club President happens to be head of the Chamber of Commerce and would love to hear from you. (Pictured above DG Sue and 1st VDG Kristi Fields enjoyed the bears.)

I also visited the Anadarko and the Anadarko Indian City Lions Clubs, handing out chevrons to several Lions including recognition for 55 years to Don Clark of Anadarko and for 35 years as a Charter Member to Jim Bish of Indian City. I have several more official visits scheduled but still have time for more in the next few weeks before things get crazy.

The Altus Leos helped with Harvest for the Hungry to restock the local food pantry. They will be ringing bells for the Salvation Army and helping the Altus Lions with their Breakfast with Santa on December 14. The Lions will ring bells on November 30, and are planning their "After Christmas" party in January as our friends and family activity for the quarter.

Other reported 3-L Lions Club activities include: Anadarko Lions are selling pecans to raise funds for service projects. Duncan Evening Lions collected used eyeglasses for recycling and approved the purchase of eye exams and eyeglasses for 6 persons. Surrey Hills Lions held their semi-annual pancake breakfast on Oct. 26. Proceeds are used to maintain the Lions Park next to the Surrey Hills Elementary School which is used by Lions and community members year round. Two Lions mowed and cleaned the park. They also collected used eyeglasses and printer cartridges for recycling.

Union City Lions held their annual pancake and sausage supper, serving about 300 persons. Pocasset Lions held their annual turkey dinner on Nov. 3, serving about 380 persons. They will help 2 families for Christmas and also collected used eyeglasses. Lawton N E Lions put out flags for Veterans' Day, and their On-Line Branch Club will have their annual Christmas show at the Veterans Administration Center at 6:30pm on Dec. 10. The Lawton Patriots Lions donated to the Lawton Food Bank Fishing for Food campaign. They also facilitated a kick-off meeting to form a Southwest Oklahoma Chapter of the Heartland Council for the Blind, and assisted the Lawton Noon club in manning the Y-Fry, a benefit dinner for the Armed Services YMCA at Fort Sill.

District 3-A News Input

The future is something we all think about to different degrees. Whether we are thinking of the future for ourselves, our children or even our grandchildren, the future is something that is important. We plan for it as we invest in 401K or worry about the future of health care.

In recent years the future of two icons I grew up with are in danger. Sears Roebuck and JC Penny are in real danger of going into the history books, not to be seen again. I have tried several times recently to shop at a Sears near my work but they have such a poor offering of stock or high prices that I leave empty handed most trips. I drive down the street and buy what I was looking for and think how sad that is for Sears to lose out on my business.

Also recently we have some of our Lions Clubs founded many years ago starting to fold into the history books. They had many good years as a club. The current members inherited a strong club but are not able to keep it going. Like Sears failing to attract enough customers, the clubs are failing to be attractive to the next generation.

Yet I visit some clubs that are very active. They often have a wide range of members including lots of women and families. Their meetings are interesting and exciting. These clubs are well known in their communities. Many Lions talk about the future of Lions in our ever changing culture. So what do we see here in this example? Doing business the same old way will not succeed in the long term. You have to be willing to grow, adapt and always look for opportunities. Is your club willing to change and reach out in new ways to appeal for time and effort from the next generation? If you don't want to change, are you willing to help sponsor a New Generation Lions Club in your community or nearby? It's time to think of the future for Lions Service in your community. Don't know how to start? Just ASK!

District 3-H

Governor
Tom Cummings

Hello, District 3H. I am dedicating this month to health. And I'm not talking about Obama Care! First, I turned 65 this month; yes, I know and I agree with you that I am much too young to be this old. So I have been dealing with terms like supplements, gap, plan F, option A, and well many of you know what I mean, but I am about to get it all figured out and implemented.

So, that leads me to the health of our district. What if I told you that our district has lost 2 clubs as we speak? What if I told you that one of these clubs had a person raising funds for the club that had an assumed name and was wanted by the Maryland authorities for escaping prison 30 years ago(OKC Belle Isle)? What if I told you one of the clubs was down on membership and tried to make a new start in a new area but just not able to make it go (Metro Lions)?

The average person might think that our district's health is in trouble, but that certainly is NOT the case. Sometime it's too easy to focus only on the problems. But let me tell you about the other 25+ clubs we have in District 3H. I have made official visits to just over half of our clubs. Each club is a little different but they all have that common thread: good people doing good service in their communities.

I have just gathered Peace Poster entries from 3 of our clubs (Guthrie, Yale, Cushing). We have made an impact with the students of these middle schools. The Mulhall-Orlando Lions had a Halloween party for local children. The Perry club awarded scholarships to 3 local seniors, purchased eyeglasses for a 10 year old boy, volunteered at high school football games and working "Meals on Wheels" for local senior citizens.

Our Stillwater Noon Lions purchased 2 pairs of eyeglasses, and sponsored the OK Lions Mobile Health Screening Unit (MHSU) recently for the community; they also assisted at their High School football games. OKC Northwest Lions collected 247 pairs of used eyeglasses for recycling, and worked the MHSU in their area. The Midwest City club assists the local food pantry and awards scholarships. The Edmond Lions furnished eyeglasses for 2 adults and 2 children just this month. Cushing Lions helped serve their community with toys and comfort blankets for needy children. And the list goes on and on every month. Our Lions in District 3-H are doing good things in their community and for state wide projects as well.

We continue working with tornado recovery in the Moore area, particularly with Briarwood Elementary School; after delivering 4 portable basketball goals, 3 tetherball kits, and an assortment of sports/play ball, MD-3 disaster relief committee members are working with LCIF to get the music education class stocked with musical instruments and accessories.

I really hate to lose Lions Clubs. But, in each of these cases, it was probably the best and right thing to do, and we will be back in each of these areas soon, with a new, strong club. Another good thing is that almost every one of the current members in these 3 clubs will be transferring to another club in the area, so we are not losing our good, experienced Lions. We need them to help train and interact with the new Lions our district is bringing in. Since July 1, we have brought in 54 new Lions. That's great. We've got to keep it going and I know of several clubs that have several good candidates they are working on right now. I've got more of the Governors 1 Team pins to award.

I was in Yale yesterday and we signed up the fifth member for that branch club sponsored by Cushing Lions. They plan to exhibit the Peace poster entries at one of their home basketball games to let all of Yale see that they have a club and hopefully to sign up more members. The Harrah Lions are sponsoring our new branch Choctaw/Nicomma Park Lions Club. They have 16 members currently and should have the other 4 members before the end of the year so be looking for the announcement of their Charter Party; and, yes, it's going to be a PARTY. Our Midwest City Lions are sponsoring our work in Moore on a new club. We hope to have the branch club going in the next 30 days and another Charter PARTY soon to follow.

So, we are losing clubs in District 3H. It happens occasionally. But, we must remember what happens each and every month in District 3-H: over 800 Lions work to make their communities better and more livable. And don't forget what we, as Lions, get out of it as well. That wonderful warm feeling of helping someone else that happens to need a hand up or a community project that can be shared and enjoyed by the whole community and knowing that you had a part in that. We aren't Lions because of that nice warm feeling we get....but it's nice. We are Lions because WE SERVE. That's what we do. And no other district does it any better....PERIOD. District 3-H's health is GREAT! Way to go DISTRICT 3-H LIONS!
