District Governor Lilane Fox

Volume IX Issue 3

SEPTEMBER-2024-2025

On Your Mark, Ready, Set, Go!

foxl3@aol.com

Cell: 614-208-4823

In August we held 4 Zone meetings. Three of our Zone Chairs are new to the role and you would think they were veterans by the way they ran their meetings! Thank you Dave, Kris and Becca! You truly showed your leadership skills in serving your District and Zone. The clubs in each of these Zones reporting amazing service in their communities. OH7 is living out the Lions motto – We Serve!

In September, we will have meetings for Zones 1, 2, 7 and 8. We have strong leaders serving in Zones 1, 2 and 8. However, we have need of a Zone Chair in Zone 7. Assistant Zone Chair Jenn Davis, who has served this Zone very well, is helping out by showing her servant’s heart, but has served in this capacity for a few years now. If you are in Zone 7, and have ever had an interest in serving your Zone, please reach out to me. It is a great way to positively impact your neighboring clubs, as well as learning more about the global impact Lions have with their service, not only in Ohio but in the world.

Serving well requires leadership skills. We can all gain these skills through training. September 5-7 is the USA/Canada Forum in Louisville, KY. While you may not be planning to attend this year, I encourage you to consider going next year. This Forum is an amazing opportunity to learn more about what Lions do, as well as gain those leadership skills, learn how to market your club, organize your events better, and hear some inspirational speakers that will motivate you to think bigger and do what others say is impossible. As Lions, we are all leaders in our community. Let’s rise to the challenge of serving well.

Right here is OH7, we are planning a new opportunity for club officers to get trained. When you understand your role and gain some confidence, you will become a stronger leader. Strong leaders make strong clubs. This keeps members satisfied and attracts others to want to be a part of it! October 19 at the Millersport Lions Club House, we will be offering a hybrid leadership training for club officers. Training will be available for presidents, treasurers, secretaries and membership chairs in-person which will also be shown via Zoom and recorded. If you can’t make it in person, or the timing is bad, these trainings will be available on our District website through the rest of 2024 to watch and receive your certificate of completion. Let’s have more club officers trained this year than ever before!

I am honored to be your District Governor this year and representing the clubs of OH7. You make me proud of the service we provide. Servant leadership is not easy, but it is very worthwhile. It is what makes our world a better place.

In Lionism,
DG Lilane

Hello Lions,

I got back from the International Convention and have been in bad health since we have been home. I passed out working on a building on the Sweetcorn Festival grounds. Dr's have told me that I have lost 3 ½ pints of blood, due to a blown blood vessel. It has fixed itself am I'm doing better. When I passed out my right leg went 90 degrees to the right. It has been in a brace for 5 ½ weeks and is getting better,

I have been to the Cabinet meeting and 2 Zone meetings. I have heard about all the services you have been doing and it sounds GREAT. Please record all the service you do; we would like to get 100% for the 4th year in a row. When you do your service projects, let the community know who you are, BE SEEN.

WE will be working at the Millersport Sweetcorn Festival and then going to the USA/Canada Forum in Kentucky. When we get back, I will be calling to schedule some club visitation's in Zones 5,6,7,8.

Robin and I enjoy going to clubs seeing some friends and making new ones. Get 3 of your Club members and go visit another Club. You can report it as a club visit. They're all a lot of service projects out there and you just might get some new ones for your clubs. Club visitations have been missing in the past few years and I would like to bring them back.

Remember we need new members. The more we have the more we can do. Keep the ones you have and add. If some of your members have not been to a meeting lately give them a call just to let them know we care.

That's it for now, keep up the good work that all of you are doing and be safe.

2ND Vice District Governor Tamarra Parker Stephens

My Fellow Lions,

Hello once again it is that time of the year or the Millersport Lions Sweet Corn Festival. I, like many others are up to our necks in festival stuff. This will be short and sincere.

OH 7 EYEGLOSS EXPRESS

Great things are happening! PDG Fred Boring set the stage to set records over the moon for eyeglasses collections. DON'T FORGET to put your eyeglasses in boxes. The first club to formally express support for the Eyeglass Trailer project is the Heath Lions, who challenge all other OH7 clubs to match their donation of $100 to the purchase and upkeep of the trailer. They have sent their donation to Lion Dan Osborn, OH 7 Treasurer. Please consider supporting this important step for our eyeglass collection. If every club gave just $100, we'd be able to pay for the trailer, new tires (which it will need soon) registration with the state and other future upkeep.

First 362 pairs of eyeglasses from the Zanesville Host Lions Club on the 13 OH7 Eyeglass Express. Let's fill up the trailer for the first trip to Pandora, Ohio. "WE SERVE" and we all know that OH7 will set records again!

CONGRATULATIONS!

To the BEST (other Lions are very good but there can only be one best) Lions in the state of Ohio. The results for 2023-2024 are complete with 13OH7 donating $35,127 which is 111% of goal. My hat is OFF to all of you for your support. There are 30 districts in our four state area with a total of seven districts exceeding their goal for the year (WOW, I am very impressed and each of you should swell your chest with PRIDE).

Let me briefly mention the goal for the 2024-2025 Lions year. It is $30.00 per member. Please take a GUESS as to what YOU donated last Lions year $30.00 per member. If we duplicate last year, the goal is met. This sounds easy but it requires all of us working together.

If you would like to have a program at your club or special event, please ask and I will do my best to be present for you. I was only asked to present one program at a club meeting this past year. There were a total of four Lions present plus myself (I hope I didn't scare people away).

Since I am not the best writer, I will copy the words provided by Lora Snow (our Regional Development Specialist at LCIF):

“Congratulations on an outstanding year of fundraising for LCIF! While you didn't quite reach the collective goal, the impact of your phenomenal efforts is undeniable—what a fantastic achievement! You rallied support, raised awareness and made significant strides toward causes that mean so much to so many, and I'm thrilled that many of you could come together and celebrate last weekend in San Antonio. You've truly earned every bit of recognition and praise.

Thank you for your continued support during our 2024-2025 Lions year.

Your commitment and resilience have set a new standard for what can be achieved, and your success in mobilizing people and resources is something to be proud of. Remember, every step forward brings us closer to our ultimate goal...serving those in need.”

The above should be taken to heart by all of us.

Always remember the theme of DG Lilane Fox:

MARKETING and COMMUNICATIONS

From the Marketing and Communications Chair

Well, we are back again for part 2 on using Google for your club.

So last month we talked about the security of Google's products and your homework was to create your club's own Google account. I hope you followed the suggestions in part 1 when you sat down to choose a name for your club. The tips that were given are very important for you to utilize when choosing the Google account name as it will help those who wish to contact you remember how to do so.

For part 2 we will look at Google Drive (GDrive) which is just 1 of the many free products that come with your Google account.

Google Drive is a cloud-based storage service that enables users to store and access files online. The service syncs stored documents, photos and more across all the user's devices, including mobile devices, tablets and PCs. But not only can this storage sync across multiple devices, but it can also be used by multiple people with permission-based access rights.

Google Drive has become an indispensable tool for both individuals and businesses to store, organize, and share files seamlessly. One of its core strengths lies in its robust sharing and permission system, which allows for granular control over who can access your files and what they can do with them. In this article, we delve into the intricacies of Google Drive sharing, permissions, and nested folder access to help you make the most of this powerful platform.

Sharing Files and Folders

Google Drive provides multiple ways to share your files and folders, catering to different collaboration scenarios:

1. Direct Sharing: You can share files or folders directly with specific individuals or groups by entering their email addresses or selecting them from your contacts. This method is ideal for targeted sharing and collaboration.
2. Link Sharing: Generate a shareable link for your file or folder and distribute it via email, messaging platforms, or social media. This approach is convenient when you need to share with a wider audience or don't have the recipients' email addresses.
3. Embedding: Embed files directly into websites or documents, enabling seamless viewing and interaction without leaving the original context. This is particularly useful for presentations, reports, and other online content.

Permission Levels

Google Drive offers three distinct permission levels, each granting varying degrees of access and control:

1. Viewer: Viewers can only view the file or folder and its contents. They cannot make any changes or download the file.
2. Commenter: Commenters can view the file or folder, leave comments, and suggest edits (if applicable). They cannot modify the original content or download the file .
3. Editor: Editors have full access to the file or folder. They can view, comment, suggest edits, make changes, and download the file.

Nested Folder Access

Google Drive's nested folder structure allows for efficient organization and streamlined access control. When you share a parent folder, the permissions you set automatically apply to all nested folders and files within it. This inheritance mechanism ensures consistency and simplifies permission management, especially for complex folder hierarchies.

However, you can also override inherited permissions for specific nested folders or files if needed. This flexibility enables you to tailor access control for individual items within a shared parent folder, accommodating diverse collaboration requirements.

It is best to think of your GDrive as a tree where the leaves are files and branches are folders. When you give access to, or share a branch with someone, they will be able to view all the other branches connected to the one you gave them permission to see. In turn, they can also see every leaf (file) attached to any branch of theirs. If you add more folders (ie branches) or files within any of the folders accessible by that person, then they will automatically be able to access those folders and files.

Best Practices

To optimize your Google Drive sharing and permission experience, consider these best practices:

- Review Permissions Regularly: Periodically review the permissions you've granted to ensure they remain appropriate and up-to-date, especially for sensitive or confidential files.
- Utilize Groups: Create Google Groups to simplify sharing with teams or departments. This eliminates the need to add individual members every time you share a file or folder.
- Leverage File Requests: Use the "File Request" feature to collect files from others directly into your Drive, maintaining control over the storage location and access permissions.
- Explore Third-Party Integrations: Integrate Google Drive with other productivity tools and platforms to streamline workflows and enhance collaboration.

By mastering Google Drive's sharing, permission, and nested folder access features, you can unlock its full potential as a collaborative powerhouse, fostering seamless teamwork and efficient file management across various scenarios.

Next month we will add to this lesson an explanation of a sample GDrive setup for your club that you can create a duplicate of and have a great starting point for your club's digital records. And don't forget to get one of your members to scan your paper records and save as PDF files. If no one has a scanner... Well I said it before.... BUY ONE for your club! They are very reasonably priced with good ones costing $100 or less. I have seen them around holidays priced at less than $50.

LOGAN LIONS CLUB

What a difference a year makes!

It was the beginning of June 2023, a Monday evening at a local restaurant's banquet room, 3 members of the Logan Lions Club held an informational meeting open to the public and potential members. Why 3? Because that is all that was left of the Logan Club. Just 3..... The meeting was attended by maybe 15 people plus the club's membership and a few other district officers.

I decided that night that I wanted to join after listening to the various presentations. Not sure if anyone else made the decision that night or not; but several of the attendees joined over the next month. The first meeting I attended for the club, there were 8 of us in attendance. A month later we had 10.

Our first event was the Millersport Sweetcorn Festival. We had SO MUCH to do to get ready to sell our famous elephant ears that year. The concession trailer had not been used in a few years; it was packed full of random club stuff as it was being used as storage. Everything came out and we used good old fashion elbow grease to scrub every inch of the thing. Repairs to the water system had to be made as well as other equipment. It had to be inspected both for the road and for the Health Department. But it got done and we managed to return to our old spot at the Sweetcorn Festival.

People seemed to be so thrilled to see our trailer back. The comments we heard about having the best elephant ears and how we were so missed made all the work to make our return happen mean just that much more to us. We knew what we had done was well worth the effort and it was appreciated. The festival went off pretty much hitch free. There were a few small issues we had to come up with some creative ways to fix; but we made it through. 10 people, we learned how to work together in record time, learning about each other as we went along.

Now here it is a year later, and we are back at the Sweetcorn Festival again, but without our trailer. As a group we decided to push ourselves again and move from a trailer to a permanent booth. We installed cabinets, counter tops, a commercial size sink, helped get the plumbing and electrical installed, added plexiglass windows, and built a stand for the fryers. Everyone pulled together again to make something wonderful happen.

Logan Lions has 13 members to run things at the festival this year, that makes it a bit easier to manage. Next year we will have more members to run the booth.

WELCOME TO THE LIONS FAMILY

DUNCAN FALLS-PHILO LIONS CLUB

On July 1st 2024 was the first meeting of the Duncan Falls – Philo Lions Club this year.

My goal this year as President is to build the membership of our club, after sadly losing three members last year to death.

Starting the year off with a with a bang, I had the privilege to reinstall a former member Lion Don Hull. Lion Don, who at the age of 96 came to our meeting the month before and asked if he was too old to join the club again. Lion Don had lost his wife of 73 years last September. He stated that he has always kept an eye on what we have been doing for the community, and that he enjoyed his time when he was a part of the club before.

Lion Don had previously joined the club in 1970 and was a member for 4 years before he left the club because of work and raising his family.

Lion Don had given me his vest several years ago when I was serving as District Governor. I have had it stored in a closet since then. After reinstalling him as a Lion, I presented him with his vest that he had worn in 1970, and it still fit him perfectly. We are so happy to have Lion Don back serving with us. Lion Don's sponsor was Lion Jim Sprague.

It just goes to show you that you can serve as a Lion at any age.
