$15,000 Gift from Lions of Pennsylvania Foundation Enables Visually Impaired, Developmentally Disabled Adults to Literally Weather the Storm. Added to a similar donation from the Paoli, Berwyn, Malvern Lions, the Foundation’s gift purchased generators for three Royer Greaves School for Blind Group Homes.

Paoli, PA...Thanks to some generous Lions, the adults with visual impairment and developmental disabilities who live in a Royer-Greaves School for Blind residence can now weather power outages safely at home.

The Lions of Pennsylvania Foundation recently presented Royer-Greaves School for Blind with a check for nearly $15,000. Coupled with a check from the Paoli, Berwyn, Malvern Lions Club, that money will fund the purchase of three electrical generators for group homes in King of Prussia, Drexel Hill, and Springfield.

The loss of electrical power, difficult for anyone, can be terrifying or even life-threatening for the visually impaired and developmentally disabled adults who live in the Royer-Greaves homes. In addition to visual and other disabilities, many have complex medical needs. “They have medicines that require refrigeration and medical equipment that needs power,” said Royer-Greaves School for Blind Executive Director Vicky Mayer. “They have a limited understanding of what is happening around them, and relocating to another house or hotel can be a fearful experience. Limited mobility adds to the risk of transporting them during severe weather,” she said.

The installation of the generators means that in a power outage, staff can continue to safely care and support residents at home, with no interruption to the routine and care they need.

“Since 1925, when Helen Keller challenged the Lions of the world to be ‘Knights of the Blind,’ our mission has been to help the blind and visually challenged,” said Lions International Past District Governor Richard T. Taylor, who is the Berks and Chester counties director for the Lions of Pennsylvania Foundation. “The Lions of Pennsylvania Foundation provides matching grants to Pennsylvania Lions Clubs that allow the local clubs to fulfill our mission within their communities. Royer-Greaves’ need for generators fits perfectly with the Lions’ mission and goals.”

This is not the first time that support from the Lions Club has improved the lives of students and adults at Royer-Greaves School for Blind.

“From our common purpose of serving those who are blind or visually impaired, a partnership arose and has continued to grow for decades,” Mayer said. “What is most appreciated by me is the Lions’ commitment to go above and beyond in their mission; where there is a need there is a Lion.”

The Royer-Greaves School for Blind, founded in 1921 and located in Paoli, PA, serves children and adults with a visual impairment/blindness and a co-occurring intellectual and/or physical disability. The Royer-Greaves community focuses on developing the unique abilities of each person served through individual support and attention. For more information, please visit

PDG John Mallonee Candidate for International Director

Greetings, Merry Christmas, and Happy Holidays to everyone!

As you've no doubt seen, MD-14 is conducting a Special Election on February 2, 2019 in Altoona as part of the State Council Meeting. As you're likely also aware, the election is to choose an endorsed candidate for MD-14 for the office of International Director of the International Association of Lions Clubs.

It will come as a surprise to most of you, but I expect to also be on the ballot as I have been officially endorsed by my sub-district, District 14-T, in a special convention and election held this past weekend. As such, I have not been able to announce my intentions until now.

I am passionate about the work that we do as Lions and have used my experience with technology, leadership, and public speaking as well as my energy and enthusiasm to serve at the club, district, and multiple-district level. I believe that we need to find a healthy balance of honoring our traditions as Lions with exploring growth and change to continue to be the largest service organization in the world. I have included a link below to a brochure that gives a snapshot of my background as a Lion, professional, volunteer, and individual.

I realize that this notice seems to come out of the blue, but I've been pursuing this opportunity since I first learned of MD-14's opening for a candidate back in August. Unfortunately, there was some confusion on my part as well as that of my sub-district's leaders, so I was unable to be on the ballot in November. However, my commitment to offering my services as a candidate has been staunch since then, and I now officially have my sub-district's endorsement.

If you are a delegate for your club or as a PDG, I ask you for your consideration before you cast your ballot in February. I have been committed to Lions since I joined the Hershey Lions Club 18 years ago and am honored to serve alongside my partner-in-service Lion Kelly Mallonee.

If you have any questions in regard to this announcement, feel free to respond to this email. Your response will not go to anyone but me.

Please feel free to share this email with the clubs within your districts as you deem appropriate.
