Fertile's Lion of the Year

In introducing the Fertile's Lion of the Year, Norma Erickson called him "our idea guy."

Mike Slevin on Mentor was selected Lion of the Year by Fertile Lions Club members.

He received a round of applause from Lions members, spouses and guests at the annual picnic June 26 at the Nature Center.

Erickson presented a commemorative clock to Slevin.

He thanked all the Lions members and said he was pleased and humbled with the honor. "There are so many deserving Lions who should be recognized," Slevin said.

"Although Lion Mike has only been a member four years, he has made an impact in our club," Erickson said. "He has made some powerful suggestions as to what our club could do as projects, here in our town of Fertile and has helped with all our projects."

For example was when a suggestion was made about bird houses and feeders at the Fair Meadow, Slevin jumped on that project. Bird houses were painted and Slevin got a crew together to put up the houses and feeders.

"The first year, all the houses were filled. It is fun for the Assisted Living and nursing home residents to watch the birds," Erickson said.

"Mike is very passionate about Lionism and wants to make a difference in many ways. He gets involved in all our projects and helps in anyway he can be of service," Erickson said.

Slevin is involved with the Week End Backpacks and the school supplies projects.

He is a leader and a good Lion to have in our club," Erickson said.

Barnesville Lions Honour Melvin Jones Recipients

Two Very Active Members of the Barnesville Lions are Melvin Jones Recipients Shown L to R are Club President Jack Foster, Melvin Jones Recipients Matt Bailey and Dean Ernst. Both Lion Matt and Lion Dean have been very active and instrumental in helping the Lions to become a "go to" service club in the community. Both members helped pour the cement at Holland Park, assist in the Club's twice per year cleanup of 8 miles of ditches, assist in annual raffle ticket sales, participate in the club's annual trap shoot, help with setting up and putting away of the Bingo tables and benches, helped with the assembly of park equipment at the recently completed "Lions Park," and both have been on the Club's Board of directors for a number of years. In addition, Lion Dean, a home grown Barnesville resident, has been responsible for purchasing the bikes that the club gives away at the Clay County Fair, and has served as the Club president. Lion Matt grew up in Battle Lake, has sponsored two new members, assists in Bingo at the Fair, and was influenced by his father and grandfather, both active Lions members. His grandfather was actually the District Governor for District 5M-9. These two very worthy Melvin Jones Award recipients continue to exemplify the Lions motto of, "We Serve."

WILLIAMS' WANDERINGS AND WONDERINGS

DG Report August 2019

I hope you have all had a chance to enjoy summer. I have been able to enjoy it a little bit at a time. Some of you may have heard that I had a motorcycle accident. I am still recovering and just recently able to walk again without crutches. Dave and I attended the International Convention in Italy. There I attended my last and final DGE training and was sworn in with hundreds of others from around the world. It was a wonderful opportunity but definitely not fun in a wheelchair.

On Saturday July 13th, Jacky and I attended the CanDo Canines Training. It was a great opportunity to hear about one of our great programs in our multiple. Our district has not had a chair for them for some time. Jacky is fired up already off and running with some club visits.

Dave and I attended the first Council Of Governors in St. Cloud on July 20th. Our district was honored to receive 3 member ship trophies for 4th quarter most new members (+77), new charter and plus net membership (17). I was also able to sit in on some Guiding Lion and Global Membership training. The Youth Exchange students treated us to a buffet of their homeland dishes and each took a turn telling about themselves and their home town.

As some look forward to the school year starting, I hope you also think about your club membership. It is a great time to bring in new members to help with the fall activities. One of my goals is for each club to end the year with at least a plus net membership of 3. That would be about 200. I believe together we can accomplish this and so much more.

I've started with some of my club visits as well and look forward to the rest soon. Please check the newsletter for an invitation form. Also, look for updates on goals. All of us are needed to achieve more.

I am still struggling with some cabinet position assignments. Please let me know if anyone would be a great asset for our district and like the chance to serve and learn.

I am looking forward to this year as your District Governor. Let me serve each of you. Contact me at 218-790-3715 or williams.deanne77@gmail.com I will do my best to help or find the answers.

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much!

Keep Roaring!

Lion Deanne Williams, DG 5M11

Petland Puppy Walk in Winnipeg

A Nudge in the Right Direction

Greg was only in his 20s when he learned he had Meniere's disease, an inner ear disease that causes progressive hearing loss, tinnitus, and, in some cases, vertigo. Over the years, Greg received two cochlear implants to help combat his hearing loss.

Samantha, Greg's daughter, worried about her father. "She was pretty nervous about me being alone at night, smoke alarms specifically," Greg says. And he was afraid he would sleep through his alarm, and found himself unable to sleep soundly through the night. So when Samantha suggested her father look into an assistance dog, Greg agreed.

After applying to Can Do Canines, Greg was matched with Hearing Assist Dog Duke. "[Duke] actually came quite a bit quicker than I had anticipated," Greg says. "Within four, maybe five months."

For Greg, the most difficult part of the training process has been taking his previous experience training hunting dogs and adjusting his techniques to train with an assistance dog. "[It's a] completely different beast," he says.

On a daily basis, Duke alerts Greg to different sounds such as doorbells, the tea pot, alarm clocks, oven timers, and the telephone by gently nudging or pawing him. Of all the tasks Duke performs, Greg firmly believes Duke's favorite to be waking him up in the morning. "He wakes me every morning. He either nudges my cheek or he'll give me a little lick," he explains.

"My sleep patterns have absolutely changed for the better," Greg exclaims. Before Duke, Greg would wake up throughout the night and be unable to fall back asleep, resulting in perpetual exhaustion. "I would usually average around 4 to 5 hours of sleep a night before Duke," he explains. Thanks to Duke, Greg is able to sleep soundly knowing Duke will rouse him if needed.

Duke has already become an integral part of the Flanagan family, having been included in camping trips, pontoon rides, and grocery store runs. When asked if Duke has made the difference she wanted for her dad, Samantha replies with a firm, "Yes."

The entire family is extremely grateful for the newest addition. "I just want to thank every single person that's involved in Can Do Canines because what you're doing matters and is really, really beneficial to people like me. So I just want to say thanks to everyone," Greg says.

Preping for Bingo at the Clay County Fair

Every year the Barnesville Lions and Thursday Night Lions sponsor Bingo at the Clay County Fair. However, some preparation is always a prerequisite for this event. Shown getting out the tables and benches for arrangement and cleaning are Lions President Jack Foster, and board members Dean Ernst, Chris Seifert and Mike Quiggle. Bingo is normally a well patronized event. In addition to trying to win a few dollars, attendees also have a place of shade as well as a place to sit and enjoy some fair food. When Bingo ends, the tables and benches have to be stacked back in very tight quarters until next year's celebration.

55 Years of Membership

Erman Ueland was recognized for 55 years of membership in the Fertile, MN, Lions Club. Membership chairman Norma Erickson presented Ueland with a pin at the Lions annual picnic June 26 at the Agassiz Environmental Learning Center in Fertile.

RIVERSIDE LIONS CELEBRATE CANADA DAY 70th ANNIVERSARY

The Lions Club of Riverside combined their Canada Day celebration with their 70th anniversary. Traditionally they hold a concert for the neighbourhood; this year we added a celebration of our 70th anniversary.

We were entertained by a live band, while the little ones and some of the tenants enjoyed having their faces painted and spinning the wheel for prizes.

Making their annual appearances were our local elected officials. Presenting Club President Bruce Alpers with commemorative certificates.
