We are Engaged!

Dearly beloved; we are gathered here today to unite this group of Lions in spirit, mind and joy. Creating opportunities for a better life is our foundation and service is our mission. We will serve whether we are rich or poor and we will serve in sickness and in health. We will serve for better or for worse and we will honor the laws of our code of ethics. We will share in our successes as well as our failures and nurture each other in our strife for a better world. We have now declared our consent and undying loyalty to those in need everywhere. By the power vested in me, by the great District of 25A, I now pronounce you Lions extraordinaire! Go forth and prosper and Happy Valentines Day!

Oops, I skipped the engagement part. Would you do us the great honor of becoming a Lion? The Lions in our district must be popping this question everyday. As of December 31, 2013, our membership is a net +40 in the District! Congratulations on your engagement! Let us keep popping the question and continue to build our ability to serve with new ideas, inspiration and joy and stay engaged!

In other news, we all know February boasts Groundhog Day. The tradition of using our friendly groundhogs for weather predictions dates clear back to 1887. Yeah, that's right, 1887 and a rodent. A rodent weather predictor. Who would have predicted that? Anyway, credit is given to the editor of the Punxsutawney Spirit newspaper in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania. Legend has it that he was so impressed by a local groundhog hunt and barbecue (That's right, you heard it here-a groundhog barbecue) that he decided the noble rodent should be heralded as a weather prognosticator. The news spread faster than a pack of scurrying rats of this rodents fantastic forecast abilities and before long Punxsutawney Phil was a local celebrity. He has gone international for cripes sake. Oh, in case you think I am kidding about the groundhog barbecue, I actually found a website that has several groundhog recipes. Country-Style groundhog, Baked Groundhog and Sweet Potatoes, Oriental Groundhog and Waco Groundhog in Sour Cream. And Harold, if you are reading this, they say it tastes like chicken!

Oh, I am not done yet with this groundhog thing yet. For instance, did you know that there are numerous websites dedicated solely to groundhog day? They have international and national picture contests showing Phil in various locations doing various groundhog things. Ambassador awards are given yearly to someone who faithfully follows Phill throughout the year. Banquets and breakfasts are given in his honor, you can become a following member and get a groundhog fleece club sweater, there are past predictions and so on and so on. For a groundhog!

Well, I can tell you we will not be seeing any groundhogs at the District Convention this year. I hope. And, I would like to personally invite you to attend. Mark your calendars and get your registrations in for March 7th & 8th. Be sure to take some time Friday night and stop in and have dinner and meet our visiting International Director Stephen Glass and his wife Lion Cindy. PDG Kevin and I have met them and they are both great people, very down to earth and they are eager to meet you too! We are planning a Read-Out-Loud program at a local school for Friday morning with ID Steve and Lion Cindy and this will be a wonderful start to a great weekend. ID Steve will be giving his main speech at the afternoon business session, so be sure to come. Remember there is no registration fee for the convention.

Get engaged by attending the convention and grab your free tote bag, compliments of PDG Bob Morgan. And, if I may be so bold, I predict we will have years and years of great Lionism whether Phil sees his shadow or not!

And no, we are not serving groundhog at the convention.

DC Connie

'A Year to Remember'

A Few Words from 1st Vice Glenn Swanson

The year is flying by and it appears DG Connie and all the Lions of 25A should be proud of the banner year we are sharing. With attendance on the rise, and the salvation of at least two clubs, who were in peril, it looks like 2013-14 will be a year to remember. Let's not rest on where we are but continue to improve. Ask someone to join your club this week or take a guest to your next meeting.

We in LaPorte, are looking forward to hosting the District Convention again this year. Lion Butch Weston and the committee have been working overtime to make this a Convention to remember. This is a great opportunity to expose new Lions and even some of the old guard to the joys of Lionism. We have some people doing great things in 25A and it is exciting to hear what people down the road are doing to serve their communities.

Working in the funeral business the past two years has made me all the more aware that time is so precious and we only have minutes and days to serve. I just received a call that one of our dear neighbors was called to the lord this morning. He has been ill for some time and his passing is a blessing. Take time to touch as many lives as you can in the moments we have to serve on this planet. Lion's activities and service can be a tremendous opportunity to reach out to people who have never been asked to join anything in their lives. We all should be given an opportunity to join but if nobody ever asks they cannot join.

In recent weeks, attending the Mid-Winter Conference at Plainfield and our Cabinet Meeting in Union Mills, I was reminded once again that boy we eat well at Lion's meetings! But most important we have wonderful people in our organization. Encourage your members to step-out and attend some of these meetings, conferences and conventions. They will come back to your club with new visions and goals. Then your club can develop new plans to carry out some of these visions. Contact myself, DG. Connie, 2nd. Vice Randy or any of the trustee's for state projects to put on a program at your club. This is an easy way to find out more about our "World Famous Organization", made up of ordinary people. Looking forward to seeing you all at the District Convention as we continue to Serve!

Merrillville Lions

Merrillville Lions proudly inducted 5 new members in January in a ceremony that required the new Lions to feel, for just a few minutes, what it is like to be sightless. They all agreed the experience made them appreciate their sight and one of the most difficult things, during this induction, was getting their balance. They are looking forward to installing at least 5 more new members in the coming month!

Lion Carol Miano was appointed acting 1st Vice President for the remainder of this Lion's year.

They are looking to having a pancake breakfast this Spring and a vision screening and health fair.

Whiting Lions

On January 16, 2014, the newly installed members of the Whiting Lions Club met at Sacred Heart's Rose Room to get their first orientation meeting. Lion President Efren Gomez went over the International Lions rules and regulations with the members so everyone can fully understand how the Lions Club is only a small part of the International organization and every club needs to do its part and live up to the motto; "We Serve". The Club went over the fundraisers they have over the year, the parades they participate in and the many service activities that are held throughout the year. The new members were truly amazed on how much the small club does in a year and they were willing to lend a helping paw in all the activities the club has planned. The second part of the orientation will be 1/30/2014 at 6:00 pm at the Rose Room.

Chesterton Lions

Chesterton Lion Chuck Temple presents a $500 donation to Derek Frazier, Development Director for the Frontline Substance Abuse Treatment Center in Chesterton. The center provides counseling, abuse assessment & evaluation, and family support for individuals suffering from addiction and substance abuse.

Also, on February 16th, Chesterton Lions will be holding our Annual "Sweetheart Swirl" daddy-daughter dance at the Chesterton Moose Lodge.

Lions Family Cub Program

Are you a role model for teaching children to importance of serving others? Before I ever became a Lion, I watched my parents serving others in the community. I also helped at different projects, serving tea and juice or picking out gifts for needy children. These experiences helped me to make the decision to become a Lion.

The Lions Family Cub program gives us the opportunity to teach our children about volunteering and helping those in need. The Cub Program is designed to teach children the joys of volunteering and help them learn what the Lions do. Cubs are children and relatives of Lions club members in the community through age 12. The program allows family-friendly clubs, adds new energy to club activities, and fosters a tradition of volunteering.

Cubs are the future! Help your children learn more about the Lions and show them by your example why you became a Lion. Allow them to come and participate at your next event, whether it be pouring drinks, passing out candy, wrapping silverware, or picking out food or gifts for those in need. These unique service experiences can set the spark for a future of serving others. The LCI website has more information about how to involve children in your club activities.

If you would like more information about the Lions Family Cub Program or have any questions about this program, please feel free to contact me at 219-759-2856 (home) 219-508-2480 (cell) or e-mail me at jlgreer5@yahoo.com. I will also have information at the District Convention on Saturday, March 8th.
