

Vice Presidents:

If the president is unable to perform the duties of his/her office for any reason, the vice president next in rank shall occupy his/her position and perform his/her duties with the same authority as the president; each vice president shall, under the direction of the president, oversee the functioning of such committees of this club as the president shall designate.

You will serve on the board of directors and accomplish special projects as may be assigned by the president. The first vice president will conduct the club meeting in the president's absence.

Not the least of your duties is to see that each committee chairman makes regular reports to the club, to the newsletter editor, and to the Public Relations Committee for news releases to the press and other media when applicable.

During your years as third, second and finally, first vice president, you have a good opportunity to prepare yourself carefully for the presidency. By helping your president you also help build your future presidency.

The president has the authority to delegate the committees that will work under your direction. Help the president choose Lion members who can do the best job. Encourage your committee members to perform fully. Your president and your club cannot succeed without teamwork.
