Message from District Governor John Babb

As I write this, its Thanksgiving Day, and the turkey is already in the oven (and my newsletter is late). I do hope that all my Lions and friends had a good Thanksgiving. I count my blessings each day that I get to work with District 33S Lions – the FINEST Lions District in the world!! You do so much good, and your communities do recognize your excellent work. In a world where care of others seems to be diminishing, you all step up!!

Since this is the December newsletter, that means that the Midwinter Convention is just around the corner. Please consider sending in your registration for the 10-12 January District 33S Midwinter Convention. Rates go up on December 5th. Lions are historically late in committing to these events, so I hope that you write the check today!!

“A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Midwinter” is the theme. We’ll have International Director Gary Brown and Lion Barbara (New York) as our guests. Forms from our Midwinter Chair, are in this newsletter. Variations from past events include, a Comedian on Friday night, a Leos-Lions Service Project on Saturday, and an Awards Luncheon on Saturday. I hope to see a great showing.

We’re nearing the half-way point for this Lions’ year. I say that with shock, as the year has flown by. I guess visitations, meetings, projects, and induction of new members does keep one busy. I have enjoyed every moment, and I hope that my service has reinforced your dedication and enthusiasm to Lions’ work. I am available for you, just let me know what you need.

Its time for your Lions’ Club to start thinking about next year’s leadership. The candidate District officers will talk on Sunday at Midwinter. If you’ve noticed in the Directory, there are positions for LCIF Coordinator, Marketing and Communications Coordinator, and Club Service Chairperson. These are fairly new positions in addition to the normal President, Secretary, Treasurer and Membership Chair. Please consider adding these positions to your Club’s officers – LCI feels this will benefit your Club, and I agree.

If you need me, the best method is email (babbjd@comcast.net) or phone (508-455-7294). If by phone and I don't answer, please leave a message so that I know who's calling and what you need. I thank-you for your efforts and your dedication. Remember to have fun!

Respectfully, District Governor John Babb

LEO's

GREATER ATTLEBORO LEO CLUB

November was another busy month of community service for the Greater Attleboro Leo Club. Leo members collected hundreds of pieces of candy at its 2nd annual "Halloween candy take back" Project.

Pouches of assorted candies were assembled at a Leo meeting for Veterans' Day, Operation Shoebox, Turkey dinner for senior citizens and Veterans' hospitals. 200 Postcards were also written to Attleboro Veterans thanking them for their service.

Over 1,200 food items were collected and sorted at the annual food drive sponsored by the Leo Club. These food items will be donated to an Attleboro food pantry. Leo members and their advisors filled and shopped for 8 baskets of food and delivered these to families of Attleboro High School students for Thanksgiving. Leo members made the centerpieces for the Attleboro Senior Center sponsored turkey dinner. A team of Leo members and Leo advisors raked a yard of a senior citizen and also helped serve ice cream with all of the trimmings at a fundraiser for pediatric brain tumors.

Leo members will participate in the City of Attleboro "Christmas is for Kids" program at their December 9th meeting by filling red stockings with small toys (slinky, bubbles, crayons, vehicles) and donating them to that organization.

NORTH ATTLEBORO LEO CLUB

So far this year North Attleboro High School Leos have 80 students signed up and have been meeting since September. The group has completed four projects with a few others underway. The completed projects include volunteering at the Falls Halloween Party, the Roosevelt Halloween Party, the Community Family Night, and the Clubs and Activities Fair at the High School

Rehoboth Anawan Lions Tree Lighting

The Rehoboth Anawan Lions will be again hosting their Annual Tree Lighting on December 7th at 3:00 pm at the Memorial Gazebo in Rehoboth on Route 44.
