VII). GLOBAL LEADERSHIP.

1. Philosophical Tenets. We believe:

- A. Every Lion has the capacity for leadership;
- B. We can help Lions achieve their leadership potential;
- C. Our leadership programs make a tangible difference for Lions on every level from local to international communities and from personal to professional life;
- D. Strong, good leadership will always develop a good organization's culture. That culture will demand excellence. Excellence will produce good service. Excellence in community service is our brand.

A. Through an annual leadership strategy review, the Council of Governors will establish Areas of focus for the designated Multiple District 49 leadership team members to act on:

- 1) Leadership [A]. Includes Areas which primarily focus on higher level academics for emerging and progressing leaders;
- 2) Club Excellence [B]. Includes Areas which help a Club operate more successful;
- 3) Great Service [C]. Includes Areas which enable Lions to more effectively plan and execute fund raisers and service projects.

B. Establish a Multiple District 49 leadership team of nine (9); comprised of:

- 1) Council of Governors Selected:

- 2) Any authorization or modification to an authorization will be pre-authorized by the chair;
- 3) Every expense claim must be accompanied by receipts for actual expenses, and a leadership activity report.

6. Technology. Given the vast territory Multiple District 49 encompasses, Multiple District 49 will embrace appropriate technologies that facilitate training and the dissemination of information to its District Lions Clubs and individual Lions, with minimal travel.

A. Multiple District 49 will identify a webmaster and direct them to create a Multiple District 49 website through LCI. The web site should include as a minimum:

- 1) A master events calendar to identify any Lions activity taking place in Multiple District 49;

C. Multiple District 49 will explore the utilization of an on-line aptitude/interest based assessment which new members may be asked to complete, so leaders may search to identify a needed resource or develop a leadership plan.

D. Multiple District 49 should accomplish much more training utilizing fewer resources (time, travel costs, etc.) by conducting classes over Skype, Webinar or other similar mediums.

7. Expectations Management. A Club which is properly managed or led, projects, in a positive sense, our branding and reputation on three fronts.

A. Public perspective. The public already understands that Lions are not self-serving, and exhibit a well entrenched understanding of their community needs. When a fundraiser is conducted, the public needs the confidence all money raised is going where it was advertised. If Lions don't maintain their existing reputation, Multiple District 49's opportunities for fostering new Clubs will be severely damaged.

B. Internally. Lions Club members need to have confidence in the Club leaders, the direction they're taking the Club, and the manner in which they're making that trek. Lions want a strong sense of mission and purpose; they don't want to worry and fight about their financial wherewithal and behavior.

C. Combined perspective. A Lions Club which has a tarnished reputation may be the demise of any future collaboration with their membership; existing or prospective; or any other enterprises they want to partner with.

D. Benefits a Club enjoys from being viable and in good standing include:

- 1) Being a "current" 501(c)(4) charitable community service organization;
- 2) Having the organizational structure that is easily transferred to a 501(c)(3) charitable organization [foundation] with all the additional benefits thereof;
- 3) Allowing them to operate an Alaska Gaming permit, or the Canadian equivalent;
- 4) Having full rights and entitlements to using the LCI liability insurance and Lions Logo to leverage their events or activities;
- 5) Using leased public lands;
- 6) Having the Lions image and reputation to open doors of opportunity that would otherwise be closed.

E. Lions Club core expectations

- 1) The following represent core expectations of every Lions Club in Multiple District 49:

- a) Having a full complement of core Club officers (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer);
- b) Having a full complement of Global Membership and Global Leadership Teams;
- c) Participating at Zone & District forums, including: 4 cabinet meetings and scheduled leadership and membership team forums;

1) When a Lion accepts a position, under performs, and expects reimbursement; they not only undermine the committee they serve, they also undermine the state of affairs for the District or multiple District in terms of ethics, reliability and organizational viability. They also discourage the pool of Lions who would normally volunteer for such positions.
