OUR NEW LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

Lion Naresh Aggarwal will be sworn in On July 4, 2017 at the 100th LCI Convention in Chicago, Il. He is from Batala a small town in Northwest India. He joined Lions in 1974 and has served the world organization ever since. Our organization is 1.4 million strong and dedicated to the needs of others. If each lion served 10 people per month the organization will achieve the goal of 220 million served annually. The motto “We Serve” is relevant today as it was in our organizations beginning. He has adopted that same Motto but putting the emphasis on “We” going forward into the new century. The power of We (Lions) we stand together to serve those in need. Yes as an individual we are limited in what we can do but with our fellow Lions we can address some of the worlds greatest problems and with the power of action combined with the power of service, we lions can knock those problems down in size.

“We Serve and the Power of We”
