Lions, Leos, and Friends,

It is hard to believe that I am in the second half of my governor year. The state of the District is pretty good.

- We are at a “plus” in membership.
- Our annual Melvin Jones Dinner was spectacular, honoring some 26 Melvin Jones Fellows.
- Our giving to LCIF this year is already $27,564. We are just shy of our $30,000 District goal.
- Three new Leo clubs have been chartered this year.
  - Village Bible Academy
  - Fountain Valley High School II
  - Bolsa Grande High School
- International President Barry Palmer made a special visit to our District during his brief time in Southern California.
- Thirteen posters were submitted for the 2013-2014 Peace Poster Contest, “Our World, Our Future.”
- The winning poster “Our future will be bright if we work together”, created by Megan Hall and sponsored by Tustin Host Lions went on to win the MD4 contest!
- Thousands of community service hours were provided by the Lions of District 4-L4.
- Thousands of dollars were given to a multitude of charitable organizations and needy individuals.
- Thousands of hours of fun and fellowship were had by the Lions of District 4-L4.

And this is just a sample of what we do as “we serve” to “make the world a better place”. I am so incredibly proud of our collective accomplishments!

What we can do in the second half of the year? Well, there are already a number of things that are on the calendar. A visit across the border to our extended Lions Family in Ensenada will take place in March. There are numerous major fundraisers in the near future. The MD4 Convention is in our own backyard Valentine’s Weekend. Our own District Convention is just around the corner.

April showers might bring May flowers, but it can also bring more Lions. April is Lions Family and Friends Month. Invite your friends and family to a Lions event. Lions Worldwide Induction Day is April 26. This worldwide event celebrates new members and gives Lions the opportunity to inspire membership growth and increase public awareness about what we do. Start planning now for one or even both! Think of what we could do in the second half of the year if we had the hands and hearts of more Lions.

Until next time, follow your dream and make the world a better place.

Sheila

The Rewards of Being a Lion

When you joined Lions was it because a friend or business associate asked you, because you want to promote your business, or because of your desire to give something back to your community? Initially we all join for different reasons, and that is okay.

What is more important is when you truly in your heart KNEW you were a Lion. This is not usually when you joined but when you had that special moment of knowing you made a positive difference in the lives of others, when you knew the heart-felt meaning of "WE SERVE."

The moment you KNEW you were a Lion was also when you discovered the rich rewards of being a Lion. You quickly learned that the Lions' reward is certainly not money. Instead, it comes in different forms.

First and most powerfully, your reward is that warm glow and sense that your work matters, that others' lives are better because of what you and your fellow Lions have done. When we were in Concord, visiting Matteo's Dream, the playground for children of all abilities, I could only imagine the feeling the Lions, who built it, must have had when they first saw a handicapped child in a wheelchair play on the park's equipment. Wow! The reward of seeing the delight of that child cannot even be measured.

Other deep rewards of being a Lion are the friendships we build with fellow Lions. Working side by side with others who have the same heart for service creates a lasting bond.

Another reward we, as Lions, need to remember is the appreciation we show to others for the work they have done. The positive reinforcement by your own club, while not as deep as the heart rewards, is still very important. This reward can be simply an "Atta-boy/girl!" or it can be a certificate, a gift or a plaque. This reward becomes even more powerful when it is given in front of fellow Lions.

Positively recognizing contributing Lions is at the core of our Lions Code of Ethics, which in part reads, "To be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise." If all of us remember to praise others publicly whenever possible and to criticize only privately and only whenever it is really needed for the betterment of Lions, our clubs would become stronger, larger, happier and most importantly, more focused on our Lions motto, "We Serve."

EVERY LION HAS SOMETHING TO CONTRIBUTE

Lions come with different skills, time availability, finances, interests and desires. All Lions have something they can contribute whether it be hands-on service, charities fundraising, mentoring of new or younger Lions, donating to a charities fundraiser, or basically giving of their time to the extent available in whatever capacity they can. Let's encourage the best out of every Lion by valuing what each Lion has to offer.

A SWEET REWARD

To those who take the time to read this article I have three See's one-pound gift certificates waiting to be claimed. All you have to do receive a gift certificate is be one of the first three Lions from different clubs who emails me the answer to the following question: "What was your special moment when you realized why you were a Lion?" As before, Cabinet members, Lions who receive advance copies of the Forum and prior winners (including family members) are not eligible. Prior winners include: Jack Tanaka, Dewey Linehan, Pete Bedame, Cathy Waters, Carol Proctor, Karen Eubanks, Debi Nichols, and Diane Quinlan.

VSP CERTIFICATES

Reminder - I still have some VSP certificates for children and adults who qualify. If you have someone who needs an eye examination and eyeglasses but cannot afford it, we may be able to help IF they can meet all of the criteria covered in the last Forum.

Let's have a great 2014!

2ND Vice District Governor Ken Myers

In this forum we will continue our talk about Leadership.

Remember, leadership is for all Lions not just the club officers. With good leadership skill (such as being able to Listen, not just hear; and to consider other views) we can really show the communities that we are leaders in our home towns.

A good leader must have a good team. Characteristics of effective teams are: interaction, accountable, commitment to goals and shared planning and decision making. A leader must also be able to assess the talent, knowledge and skill level of their team members. A successful team is an enthusiastic team.

There are 11 Commandments for an enthusiastic team (written by Ian Percy)

- Help each other be right – not wrong.
- Look for ways to make ideas work – not for reasons they will not.
- If in doubt – check it out! Don't make negative assumptions about each other.
- Help each other win and take pride in each other's victories.
- Speak positively about each other and about the organization at every opportunity..
- Maintain a positive mental attitude no matter what the circumstances.
- Act with initiative and courage as if it all depends on you.
- Do everything with enthusiasm - It's contagious.
- Whatever you want – give it away.
- Don't lose faith – never give up.
- Have fun.

AS SEEN IN THE FEBRUARY 2014 ISSUE OF THE LION MAGAZINE. CONGRATULATIONS PDG ELIZABETH ON THE WORK YOU DO AND LION CAROL VAN HOLT FOR GETTING HER RECOGNIZED.

California Lion Elizabeth Warren didn't set out to be the "Pajama Queen" of District 4 L 4, but that's how she's now known for her enthusiastic collection of sleepwear for kids. After reading about a similar project in Texas featured in LION Magazine, Warren, a past district governor, wanted to collect pajamas for local children placed in Child Protective Services because of trouble at home. "I am convinced Lions have the biggest hearts," she says.

Harbor Mesa Lion Carol Van Holt explains, "She thought of how traumatized these children are by suddenly being taken from their home or school to be placed in a safer, healthier environment, but sleeping in a strange bed. To have a new pair of pajamas would be so comforting to them."

Warren approached other members of her Rancho-Cucamonga Community Lions Club and they planned a "pajama party" collection that is now an approved district project. When that club disbanded, she was happy to find that members of the Ontario-Upland Lions Club she then joined were equally supportive.

The project is now ongoing in two counties and involves three organizations that help homeless and destitute families. Sleepwear ranging in size from infant to teen has been collected and distributed to more than 2,000 children in need. "These kids will have safe and comfy sleep, many for the first time in their lives, and Lions will have a part in that," says Warren. "Clubs have spread the news in their own communities through newspaper articles and are now taking donations from the public and then bringing them to our district and region meetings," she says. "Some, like La Habra and Pomona Host, are distributing the collections themselves. Occasionally I take donations of money, and the pajamas are then purchased by a 'super shopper' in my club and added to the collection."

The spirit of giving has spread throughout the district, Van Holt reveals. "When the young grandson of a Lion heard about the project, he decided to ask his birthday guests to bring new children's pajamas for the collection instead of gifts for him. His request resulted in a total of 39 pairs for the cause," she says.

CABINET SECRETARY

JOAN PARKS

The first month of the New year has come and gone. Where does the time go? To service for all of us Lions.

Again, good work from most of you Club Secretaries. I appreciate your hard work on the month reports, and your timely reporting. Our third District Meeting was a success and very well attended. It was nice to see the many president's and PDGs receive their acknowledgements.

Next up are the three Region Meetings, which means the Region Student Speaker's Contests. This is a wonderful contest and project and we would hope many of you will continue to attend at this level, even if you club student didn't go this far. All of these kids need our full support. It is much nicer for them to speak in front of a larger crowd. Encourage your club to attend and get your reservations in ASAP. Region Meeting dates are; Foothill on March 24th, Orange Region on March 25th and Saddleback Region on March 26th. Flyers will be out very soon. Watch for them. Our next District Meeting will be on April 12th in the Foothill Region. This will be a luncheon meeting.

There are lots of important events coming up throughout the district in the next few months. Don't miss out, but remember how important it is for clubs to attend and be represented at the Zone, Region and District Meetings.

CABINET TREASURER

CAROL LINEHAN

Thank you to the twenty-seven (27) Clubs of District 4 L4 who have paid their first 6 months dues to MD4 on time. This is the money that is used to operate the District.

I will be calling/contacting six clubs (6) who are delinquent over 90 Days in their dues to explain the importance of paying their dues on time.

Your Clubs should be receiving or have received invoices for the remaining six months which covers January – June 2014. Some important reasons for paying your Dues to MD4 is the District needs it to operate on, to be eligible to hold a Student Speaker Contest, to vote at MD4 Convention which is coming up in February & 4L4 Convention in May.

Fantastic Foothill Region

By Foothill Region Chair
Barbara Smith

Every year I look forward to January because it is time for the elegant and very special Melvin Jones Fellow Dinner. This year's event was extraordinary! It was so enjoyable watching the many outstanding Lions receive their awards. The venue was incredible too. Have you ever seen so many classic old cars and antique radios and phonographs, and what about that Victrola with its dog Nipper?

The Student Speakers Contests will soon begin, first in the zones, then the regions and then district. I love going to the contests in all the regions so I get to hear all the speakers before the district finals. We have such talented students!

The Foothill Zone Speakers Contests are as follows:

- Zone A is Tuesday, March 4th at the Lions Community Center East at 9191 Baseline Road in Alta Loma. For further information, call Zone A Chair Steve Lacey at 909-921-6560.

I encourage as many people as can from your club to attend. The zone meetings are always lots of fun.

The Foothill Region Meeting with its Student Speakers Contest will be held on Monday, March 24 at Banfield Hall at Western University of Health Sciences in Pomona. Region contests are always highly competitive and enjoyable.

A touch of sweetness for your thoughts: Elsewhere in this district Forum someone has offered a certificate for a pound of See's candy to the first three people who email him/her the correct answer to his/her question. As an added incentive for reading the Forum cover to cover, we are adding an extra prize. The first person (no restrictions other than not the same winner this month through the other candy offer) to send to my email address the answer to the question in the other candy offer will also receive a certificate for one pound of See's. I encourage everyone in your club to read the Forum. Editor Ellen Liebherr always produces an excellent publication, which contains a wealth of information about Lions, the clubs, and their activities. Enjoy!!

Thank you to Zone A Chair David Stilwell for the nice focus club of the month!

FOCUS CLUB OF THE MONTH - WALNUT – DIAMOND BAR LIONS

Kirby Holte is president with Karen Hormuth as secretary. The Club meets on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month at 6:00 pm, at the Misora Japanese Restaurant, in Diamond Bar.

The club recently put on a fundraiser pancake breakfast at the City of Walnut "Family Festival" event. They raised $1,000.00 dollars. The club deserves a very big "shout out," for adding five new members in the month of December. HIP, HIP, HOORAY!

The club held one of their December meetings at the Huntington Beach VFW Lodge, with an excellent dinner and a fantastic dock view of the annual Huntington Beach Boat Parade. Before the parade a gift exchange game was performed. I must say that that all who attended had a great time. I personally look forward to next year's event.

Activities around the Foothill Region:

DIAMOND BAR BREAKFAST LIONS plunged whole-heartedly into the winter season with activities at the Diamond Bar Winter SnowFest on January 18. The Lions club sold pizzas, and their Leos had multiple booths, consisting of two games, face painting and tattoos. Six members attended the Melvin Jones Fellow Dinner. The club also recycled 80 pairs of eyeglasses. Diamond Bar Breakfast's next fundraisers will be at Bob's Big Boy on February 26th and March 26th, 5:00 p.m. to closing. As always, the club is fully immersed in the meetings and activities of its Leo groups.

ONTARIO HOST LIONS had several wonderful holiday activities. First, on December 3, the club put on a Lunch with Santa for Lincoln School, a school for children with special needs. The students were busily writing their letters to Santa. Then the Ontario Host Lions hosted the lunch, and Jim Garbo was Santa, distributing all of the gifts to the children. See the accompanying photos. Then on December 21, the club distributed 207 baskets to local families in need. Each basket had approximately 53 items, including a fresh chicken, milk and fruit. During the week, the SJVC Ontario Lions Branch Club, SJVC Enactus members and Chaffey High School Leos helped sort all of the cans that were donated. Lion Dave Flatten was instrumental in making this event happen, and generously provided warehouse space for the sorting and packing. While many families picked up their baskets, the Club delivered 75 of them.

POMONA HOST LIONS had three hands-on service projects during January. At the club's monthly PlarnFest on January 8th, members cut plastic bags into strips and tied the strips into plastic yarn (plarn), which will then be crocheted into sleeping mats for the homeless. On the 17th, the club held a flag day for two first grade classrooms at Allison Elementary School. Club members read a book on the flag to the students, gave a small American flag on a wood base to each child and a stuffed, patriotically dressed lion and the flag book to the class. Then on the 28th, Pomona Host Lions gathered at a local church to make 110 sack lunches for the "Meals for the Homeless" program. The club finished its Sight for Success campaign, which made enough money to purchase 32 pairs of glasses, and members are actively preparing for the club's charities Bowl-a-thon. The club also had six members attend the Melvin Jones Fellow Dinner to celebrate our club's recipient Anne Henderson.

The ONTARIO-UPLAND LIONS Club members continued their ongoing project of knitting hats for newborn and preemie babies. They are also knitting helmet liners for the military, and they continue collecting eyeglasses. They have had their Student Speakers competition, and they are getting ready for their annual Bunco fundraiser.

During January the UPLAND HOST LIONS delivered boxes and bags of toys and clothing to Mercy House to be distributed to the homeless and needy individuals in the community. Club members also made and delivered 60 hygiene bags to the USO. The Upland Host Club continues to have activities with their Atria del Rey Branch Club.

WALNUT-DIAMOND BAR LIONS have been extremely busy as usual with their food bank distribution activities. They have also been collecting eyeglasses from the City of Pomona and the Walnut Senior Citizens Center. The club is getting ready for its Student Speaker Contest. In addition, plans are in place with the City of Walnut for the Walnut-Diamond Bar Lions Club 38th Annual Easter Hunt and Pancake Breakfast.

A group of WESTERNU LIONS spent a recent weekend in Tijuana, Mexico, helping with vision testing at the California Lions Friends in Sight clinic. The club is also actively planning a multi-discipline health fair on February 22 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Fremont Academy, 725 W. Franklin Avenue, Pomona. There will be free health screening for vision, dental, feet, diabetes, grip, and body mass index. General health information will also be available. All district Lions are invited to attend and be screened if they desire. The WesternU Lions Club continues to expand its membership into formerly non-represented colleges on campus. The club elected new officers in January, as is required by the university. The new president is Kenneth (Ken) Van. The 2014 Board has members from the Colleges of Optometry, Dental and Pharmacy.

By Larry Williams,
Co-Chairman District 4L4 Eyeglass Collection Project

In the second quarter of the 2013/14 Lion year the California Lions Friends in Sight Vision Screening Team traveled to nine sites. In these sites, they served the vision needs of 2,848 individuals with 90% of them leaving with vision improving recycled eyeglasses. The top two vision screenings done, during the quarter, was where the Team was able to serve the vision needs of over 416 individuals in Oxnard then on down close to the Mexican border in Imperial where in a day and a half the Team was able see over 700 individuals with 672 of them leaving with their vision improving recycled eyeglasses.

This brings the CLFIS Vision Screening Teams year-to-date numbers up to 5,362 individuals seen versus only 4,572 over the same period last year. If this year's numbers continue to grow at the same rate, this year's total will be 10,724 or a 6% increase over last year's 9,526 which is coming off a 36% increase in individuals seen totally last fiscal Lions year.

As has been pointed out before, the Team could not provide these vision screenings without the help of the many volunteers that come to help. This first half of the year the CLFIS Vision Screening Team had 755 volunteers working right along beside them in the 17 vision screenings done this fiscal year. These volunteers came from 45 different Lions Clubs representing numerous MD4 Districts across central and Southern California, and including several Leo clubs and many outside organizations and non- Lions.

If you would like to help during the second half of this fiscal year go to the CLFIS website:

californialionsfriendsinsight.org

to see the upcoming schedule of vision screenings. The CLFIS Vision Screening Team needs many more volunteers to continue to maintain the same excellent services. So when they are in your area come out and volunteer your help.

A big thank you again goes out to all the Lions Clubs who continue their financial and volunteer support of these California Lions Friends in Sight vision screenings.

District GMT Coordinator

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 13 CLUBS THAT HAVE ACHIEVED NET PLUS FOR THEIR CLUBS THUS FAR INTO THE 2013-2014 YEAR

At the end of the second quarter the District is a plus 26 with 1,208 members. We are 13 less than we were at the end of the first quarter. We need 42 more members and that's the two clubs the team is working on that will get us to the infamous 1,250. I want to congratulate the 13 clubs that have a positive net growth for the year thus far. They are: Seal Beach Host with 39; Cucamonga District Host with 7; La Habra Host with 5; Ontario Host 5; Newport Beach Hawaiian 4; Brea 3; Buena Park Noon 3; Harbor Mesa 3; Laguna Niguel 3; Diamond Bar Breakfast, Garden Grove Host and Pomona Host at 1 each. That leaves 20 clubs that could use a little help from the GLT/GMT Team to gain more hands so that you can embellish your hands-on service projects.

Now that the holidays are over, all clubs need to review their goals for the year and make whatever changes are needed to stay on track. If you haven't already done it, I encourage all clubs to download LCI's New Member Recruiting Guide named "Just Ask" and create a club growth plan for the rest of the 2013-2014 year. The program is designed to guide your club through the process of recruiting new members and effectively managing club growth. The strength of your membership and the health of your club will determine your ability to do what all Lions love to do – serve. So keep in mind that more members mean more service.

How challenging is it to ask a person "How would you like to join a group of Loving Individuals Offering Needed Service?" or attend a club meeting? Let your invited guest know that Lions are Loving Individuals Offering Needed Service in the local community and is a great way to network your business. The Recruiting Wheel is the key to helping members know where to look for possible new members. It is imperative that you have a club brochure that outlines the activities and major accomplishments. Every club should have a budget for inviting at least two possible new members per meeting. Then invite them to participate in one of your hands-on service projects. That usually convinces them to want to be part of the team.

I challenge every Club to set a minimum goal of two new members by June 1st. That would be approximately 66 new members and would exceed the District Governor's 2013-2014 Team Goal of 53.

As I mentioned earlier, there are two clubs being formed in the Orange Region and the goal is 2, however we really would like three. If you have any ideas on individuals that would like to start a club, please pass that information to me or any member of the District Governor Team so that we can implement a plan to make it happen.

Your GLT/GMT Team is here to help you achieve your goals. Use us!! I am available at your request to help build your club. Call me at 760-802-6018.

For another installment of City Snippets, here is the first article from City of Hope's EHope newsletter on the subject of New Year's Resolutions. The plan is to add two more articles, one in each of the next two issues of the 4L-Forum.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS: TIPS ON EATING BETTER, EXERCISING MORE
by H. Chung So

Along with the midnight toast and the Times Square ball drop, New Year's resolutions are an annual tradition at the changing of the year. But for many who've resolved to lead a healthier life in 2014 through mindful eating and regular exercising, sticking with these promises for the rest of year and beyond is another matter.

When making New Year's resolutions, stick with steady, incremental improvements in your diet and physical activity rather than one drastic change, experts say. Drastic changes, like going on a diet that eliminates entire food categories or suddenly engaging in rigorous exercise routines, can backfire, according to Peggy Mancini, M.S., R.D., a clinical dietitian at City of Hope, and Jeanette DePatie, a certified fitness instructor. Not only are these changes difficult to stick with, they can be downright harmful, these experts say. "Really long and intense workouts after being sedentary for a while ... are a recipe for pain and injury. That is why the sports medicine guys are so busy in February," DePatie says. "Any diet that restricts a food group results in a loss of nutrients unique to that group. The lost weight is unlikely to be kept off if it's not an eating plan you can stick with," she says. Instead, Mancini and DePatie offer these tips to resolution-makers so they can keep their promises for better health this year:

- Plan for incremental changes. Both Mancini and DePatie say that changes to diet and activity should be steady and gradual so they can be lifelong, sustainable habits. These small changes can include eating an extra serving of fruit or vegetable a day, switching from full-fat to low or non-fat dairy products, and forgoing sweetened beverages. For exercise, DePatie says, weekly improvements should be no more than ten percent per week (e.g. if you can comfortably break a sweat walking 10,000 steps today, do not aim for more than 11,000 steps by next week.)
- Find activities you enjoy. "If your exercise routine is boring, painful or just not fun, the TV will win every time," DePatie says. She encourages people to go "fitness dating" and try a wide variety of activities until they find something they enjoy. And they should continue to mix it up to avoid falling into a humdrum routine.

Vamonos a Ensenada!

- Keep a journal. Keeping tally of your food intake and activity — either in a physical journal, online website or a mobile app — is a great way for resolution-makers to maintain awareness and build progress by letting them "review and decide what they want to improve upon," according to Mancini. Additionally, journaling helps one create an actionable plan with concrete goals ahead of time.
- Focus on intrinsic rewards. Both Mancini and DePatie advocate looking beyond external measures, such as a number on the scale, when engaging in healthy habits. "Changes in how you feel can occur after just a few minutes of exercise," DePatie says. Likewise, Mancini says people should see their resolutions as a "lifelong investment in themselves, their loved ones and others around them who will be inspired by their healthy habits."

Mancini and DePatie agree that resolutions — reasonable ones you can commit to — have tangible and lasting benefits. "In the short term, exercise lifts your mood, helps you cope with stress, clears your mind, strengthens your memory, helps you feel better, helps you sleep and helps you have a better sex life," DePatie says. And for the long haul, Mancini says, a healthy diet and exercise regimen "reduces the risk of diabetes, many types of cancer, heart disease and hypertension."

HEARING & SPEECH ACTION NEWS

Lions Clubs International FOUNDATION

Congratulations to our newest Melvin Jones Recipients

The following is from a Hearing Health Foundation article:

“A cure for hearing loss and tinnitus is at hand. Scientists in our Hearing Restoration Project (HRP) are gaining momentum every day in finding a cure for hearing loss and tinnitus (ringing in the ears). We know birds, and most non-mammals, can spontaneously regenerate their inner ear hair cells and restore their hearing. Our team of HP researchers are identifying how we translate this to people like you and me. But we can’t do it alone. This is why we are urging you to commit yourself to HHF and make your contribution to our 2014 Annual Fund Campaign.

Through multiple national and international HRP research projects, our HRP scientists work together, sharing unpublished data and tools, and refining the Strategic Research Plan. This helps eliminate repetitive work, saving time and money and accelerating the timetable to a cure. We will soon launch a new bioinformatics database providing a way to analyze and compare large sets of data. Also, we will be launching a new national public education campaign about our cutting edge research that holds the key to a cure and will bring us closer to the day when hearing loss and tinnitus are a thing of the past.

Thank you for your support.”

This is a project that would fit nicely into Lions “We Serve” policy.
