You! Hey Lion!

When you decided to become a Lion, is the Lions program what you were told it would be? What did you expect? Is your club active? Do you get something out of your club meetings? Do you serve on committees? Are YOU being active in fund raisers and service projects?

Recently, I was holding one of my district cabinet meetings. We were handling business of the district as usual. The minutes were read, treasurer's report given.

Committees were giving reports, etc. Then as the business went on, we started talking about making some changes to our budget for various reasons. We had very good discussion about it and took it to a vote. Once the voting was done and the motion carried, we had a fellow Lion say that if he had known he could not vote on the business of his district, he would have only come for the meal and then left instead of sitting through the business meeting without a chance to vote.

Whew! And I don't mind telling you, that rattled my chain and threw me off balance. Now what do I do? The past district governor made some statements and my chair for nominations and elections pointed out the rules for voting and who was allowed to vote. I tried to explain that we have to follow rules for voting by the cabinet members, but the input from Lions is very important.

Lions! Your District Governor and the cabinet needs to know your opinion of the business at hand. What you have to say is very important to the operation of Lions. The club as an organization is your club. For more than 1.4 million Lions to do the work they do for millions of people, you need to understand that your voice is very vital to the operations of Lions.

When there are zone meetings, district meetings, conventions, your local club meetings, ATTEND those meetings. I have never been at a meeting where the Lion leading the meeting has said – “we don't need to hear from you - you are just a Lion and your opinion and/or ideas don't matter.” From these meetings, you will always learn something about Lions, the operations of Lions, or even return home with ideas which might work for your club.

So remember, the next time you attend any kind of meeting, your voice is important and YOU are important. You are important to your local club, your community and the Lions of the World.

BE PROUD TO BE A LION!!
WHERE THERE'S A NEED, THERE'S A LION!

Lion Cindy Wright
25-D District Governor

Lions Club International is a service organization. The heart and soul of being a Lion is serving others. Yes, we need fund raisers in order to be able to serve. However, Lions should strive to be known for their SERVICE projects.

As I have been talking with clubs about their service projects which are related to encouraging reading among school children (Reading Action Program), I have been very impressed. Some of the programs are ones I had forgotten about, others are fairly recent. All are worthy.

A couple of clubs participate in The Dictionary Project, giving dictionaries to elementary school students, usually third grade students. Other clubs have put out a Little Free Library or are considering one. Little Free Libraries are small boxes with books where the idea is to take a book and replace it with one that has been read. In another club, some members are mentors in the local school. Two other programs which are supported are the Dolly Parton Imagination Library and the Reading is Fundamental program. The Dolly Parton Imagination Library gives books to preschool children. Reading is Fundamental gives books to elementary students. What an impressive list! Lions are supporting reading programs in varied ways, but all are beneficial. Maybe YOUR club can get an idea from this article.

Keep up the GREAT work, and I hope to see you soon.
