MONTHLY MUSINGS

DG BILL UHRIG

MD 25 Lions enjoyed a most interesting and informative Mid Winter Conference Saturday, 10 January at Plainfield Middle School. PDG Jim Query, Conference Registrar, reports 258 Lions registered with 28 no shows. District 25F had been assigned a goal of 50 Lions. Those who attended pat yourself on the back. We had 86 registered. Individual Club recognition was based on total Club members registered and present. 25F Clubs recognized were Indianapolis Washington Township and Pike with 8 and Ben Davis with 7.

By the time you read this our Winter Cabinet Meeting hosted by the Richmond Lions Club will be history.

Now let's plan ahead. Our District Convention is to be held Saturday, 14 March at Chapel Hill 7th and 8th Grade Center, Indianapolis. There is a registration form included in this newsletter. Note our Keynote Speaker is International Director Mike Molenda who will be accompanied by his wife Lion Linda. I've met and had several conversations with ID Mike and I'm confident you'll enjoy and profit hearing from him. Please put this on your calendar and get your registration in post haste.

I know it may seem a long way off but the Indiana Lions State Convention will be 24-26 April at the Clarion Hotel and Conference Center in Columbus. It is billed as "Celebrate the PRIDE in Columbus". You'll find a registration form in this newsletter. Again I encourage you to complete and submit. Inasmuch as we had 86 Lions from our District at the Mid Winter Conference I'm confident we can exceed that number especially for the Saturday Night All State Banquet where our honored guest will be International President Joe Preston. Your State Convention Committee has been working diligently to make this an affordable event. The meal cost that evening is $15.00 with your choice of Chicken Cordon Blue, Roast Beef or Caribbean Salmon. MD 25 has set a goal in excess of 400. With Columbus being somewhat centrally located in our District I know we'll be well represented and do more than our share in welcoming IP Joe.

Thanks for bearing with these musings.

I wanted to let you know that the MD 25 State website is back up and running. To view the website go to www.indianalions.org
