WHAT A GREAT DAY TO BE A LION

The 95th State Convention has just concluded and what a great time it was! Shippshewana was an ideal setting with the scenic landscape, the delicious food, the delightful people, and the warm hospitality of the great Lions from District G. PDG Paul and Lion Rose Russell were ideal Convention Chairpersons. Next year the Convention will be in Evansville as we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Lions Clubs International. Then starting the second 100 years of LCI, we will hold the State Convention in Muncie, IN, located right here in District D.

I would like to take this opportunity to talk about 2 great Lions that have served our District well for the past 28 years and they were both honored at the State Convention:

International Director Linda Tincher read to the audience, “Lion Richard “Dick” Creger, has worked diligently with the Pendleton Lions Club in strengthening the impact members have on the community. Dick always stresses quality members over quantity of members. He encourages members to participate in projects and finds something for everyone to do. He has sponsored several members and makes sure there is an orientation for the new members and a refresher orientation for the club as a whole. He is a true believer in mentoring members.

Lion Dick works well with the community leaders and encourages programs for the membership of the club. Recently Lion Dick invited the local Kiwanis Club to the annual Lions Picnic and has fun competitions between the clubs and the winning club has a trophy for a year until the next year’s picnic. (The Lions club will be practicing on the egg toss game before next summer). Lion Dick Creger has indeed stepped up to the plate in his President’s role of the Pendleton Lions Club. He also continues to be active in the District and truly believes in the Lions Motto: We Serve.” Lion Dick Creger was then presented the Leadership Medal by International President Dr. Yamada.

Next ID Linda read, “PDG Steve Marsh is a member of the Portland Lions Club and has been an active member for 28 years. He works tirelessly making Lion Burgers at the Portland Fairgrounds for the many events held there including the Jay County Fair and the Annual Tractor and Engine Show. Steve’s club sponsors, with the Kiwanis and Presbyterian Church. Hot Cakes for Cold Kids, a free breakfast for those who bring gently worn coats that can then be shared with those in need. One will find Steve either busy flipping pancakes or entertaining the crowd during the event.

Steve has sponsored several members and mentored many, many more. Steve has held several offices in the Portland Club, moving up to President. In 2004, Steve was District Governor of District 25D, and despite serious health issues led the District well. Currently Steve is the secretary of his club, a job he does not take lightly. Since Steve’s background of being a very successful high school teacher, he has a natural ability and charm for educating Lions and leading them, somewhat like Tom Sawyer, into positions that he knows would suit them well. Steve works tirelessly in the District and is always just a phone call away.

His tenure with the Indiana Lions Foundation has gained him the respect of many. The Portland Lions Club Community, District D, and State of Indiana are indeed better because of Lion Steve Marsh and his enthusiasm for serving others.” International President Dr. Yamada then presented PDG Steve Marsh with the Presidential Medal.

DG Betty

Hello fellow Lions of 25D,

WOW! We are into May and quickly headed to the end of our 2015-2016 Lions year. It was a busy April with a very successful 25D Lions Leadership Workshop in Pendleton on the 23rd of April. We had 11 new or enhanced Lion Leaders attend to further their Lions' knowledge in a full day of learning, laughter and fun. The workshop was hosted by the Pendleton Lions Club, the home club of District Governor Betty. She and I helped to instruct along with PDG Steve Marsh, the district Global Leadership Team Chair. Then, joyfully ending with all of the fellowship and business involved in attending the wonderfully successful 2016 MD25 State Convention in friendly Shipshewana, Indiana with our International President. WOW! We are definitely all fired up and on our way to "finishing strong" as IP Yamada has encouraged us to do in 2015-2016.

Once again, I urgently need the names, addresses, emails, phone numbers of all the club's new officers for 2016-2017 for them to get into the district and state directories, PLEASE!

Thankfully, Lion Steve Holtzleiter, DGE.

Take Your Turn.....

Do you volunteer your time when your club has an event? It could be a weekly activity, a yearly activity or even when your club takes its vending trailer to the fairs and festivals during the summer months.

If you are an older Lion, a Lion with some type of disability, have young children at home, or still go to work at your daily job, you still are obligated to your Lions Club to volunteer some of your time to fund raising events or service projects. You could be the cashier, wrap silverware, make coffee, bread tenderloins, work at the dessert table, be a greeter, help with upkeep and maintenance of your Lions Club den or property, take tickets, or help wash dishes. If you can only give a couple of volunteer hours, it is still a great help to your club. It takes all Lions in a club to make your club a successful club, a fun club and a club recognized for the service they do.

When you do not do your share of volunteering time, it will eventually take its toll on those that volunteer more than their share of time in order to make the club's activities successful. Lions will begin to burn out, attend less meetings, and eventually will drop out all together because of such demand on their time. Everyone has a personal life too.

If all members would volunteer their fair share of time to club activities and events, the time working at the events would be less stressful and a lot more enjoyable for all those involved. It will help not only to retain your current members, but will also increase your membership.

So...when it's time for a club event, volunteer your share of time. Take Your Turn!!

1st VDGE Cindy

The Lions motto is "WE SERVE" and twice a year Union City Lions serve breakfast! On a cold April Saturday, which felt more like January 9th, approximately 465 braved the weather to support the "all you can eat" sausage and pancake breakfast. In addition to the meals, bulk sausage was sold. The Lions also sold a variety of nuts. All the proceeds went to fund local and state non-profit endeavors. The Lions were assisted by Union City High School students from the National Honor Society, AVID, SADD and the wrestling teams, all of whom will receive a donation for their efforts.

District D Hosts Leadership Skills Workshop

by District Governor Betty Weist, District Governor Elect Steve Holtzleiter, and PDG Steve Marsh

On Saturday, April 23, with bright sunny skies, and temperatures in the 70's, 11 Lions from District 25 D met at the Pendleton Conservation Club for an all day Leadership Skills Workshop. The instructors for the workshop were District Governor Betty Weist, District Governor Elect Steve Holtzleiter, and PDG Steve Marsh. With a million other things the 11 Lions could have been doing, they chose to participate, interact, and improve upon their leadership skills in order to improve not only their clubs, but our district as well.

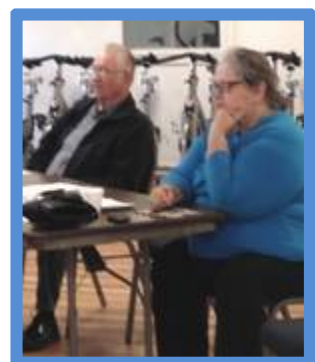

Some of the topics presented and discussed were: Leadership Styles necessary to lead individuals and groups, Understanding Why People Volunteer, the proper and most successful way to Conduct Meetings, Group Motivation, Decision Making Skills needed, How to Solve Problems as a Lions Leader, How to Build a Successful Lions Team, Conflict Resolution Skills, Delegation, Goal Setting as a leader, Proper Planning and Time Management, and Effective Presentations.

The 11 members of the Skills Workshop were: Lorraine Doty and Tom Cole from the Pendleton Lions Club. Larry Coates, Randy Titus, Katheryn Holtzleiter, and Kenny Olvey attended from the Anderson Noon Lions Club. Bill Daniels, Ritchie Harger, and Dave Barker all attended from the Wayne Fall Lions Club. Attending from the Frankton Lions Club were Paul Featherstone and Harold Hahn.

These 11 future leaders will build and expand upon their leadership skills gained, to help lead, not only their clubs and their communities, but our District as well. They were all an incredible group and everyone participated with their personal experiences and examples. It was an interactive workshop, where each participant gained knowledge of leaders and leadership in Lionism.

Each Lion received a diploma, as well as a special Lions Leadership Pin, given only to those Lions that had successfully completed our workshop. These 11 Lions were some of the best participants this district has had in many, many years. Whenever you see them, give them a high five and say congratulations for a job very well done.

The next Leadership Training will be our Officer Training Schools. This training will be to prepare the incoming Presidents, Vice Presidents, Secretaries, Treasurers, and other officers of their duties and responsibilities of each office. This Officer Training School will be determined at a later date and place convenient to as many Lions as possible.

VDGE Steve Holtzleiter gives a speech. Want to know why he is speaking to their backs? Attend the next Leadership training and learn the answer.

RIGHT - Frankton Lion Harold Hahn and Pendleton Lion Lorraine Doty were among those attending the workshop.
