

Lions Code of Ethics

I will be proud to work hard so that I may build a reputation for quality of service.

In all I do, I will keep my self respect which I would lose if I took unfair advantage or because of questionable acts on my part.

I will remember that in providing service it is not necessary to tear down another. I will be loyal to the people who receive my services and true to myself.

I will consider friendship an end and not a means. True friendship demands nothing and accepts service from another in the spirit in which it is given.

I will keep in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my province, my community and my club. I will show my loyalty in words and actions and I will give freely of my time, talents and resources.

I will help others as I am able.

I will be careful of my criticism and liberal with my praise. I will build up and not tear down.
