

J. Wesley (Wes) Corrothers
32-A District Governor, 2016-2017

DG Wes is a Charter member of the Spartanburg Southside Lions Club and served for one-and a half terms as its president. He has been active in his clubs' service projects and fundraising activities. In particular, he was club president when they became the first Lions Club in South Carolina to acquire a "Spot-Pedia Camera." Lion Wes attended and successfully completed the Leadership Training classes for the Southeastern Region, three years ago, led by PCC Joe Pitts and other experienced leaders. Additionally, he has participated with the other VDG's from around the State in quarterly day-long training sessions from the GLT team. Last year he also visited the Leader Dog headquarters in Michigan and attended the USA/Canada Leadership Forum in Grand Rapids, MI.

On June 27th, 2016 he was installed as District Governor for 32-A during the 99th Lions Clubs International Convention held in Fukuoka, Japan. Lion Wes wants to continue to serve Lionism on a local, district and state-wide level.

Lion Wes is married to Lion Earlene. They live in Spartanburg and have two grown children. Wes retired earlier in 2014 from the City of Spartanburg, where he was a Director and ran the Neighborhood Services Department for the City. Lion Wes' career took place mostly in Charlotte, NC where he was involved in Commercial Banking, and Real Estate Development projects, as well as other civic activities. He is the Treasurer of Mt Moriah Baptist Church and also serves as a Trustee.
