

The International Association of Lions Clubs
District 14B - Policy No. 101

Policy on District Convention Tours

PURPOSE: To provide guidelines for the District Governor and his Cabinet for the proper conduct of District tours to the convention city.

- GENERAL: A. The District Governor shall appoint three (3) Lions as a tour committee to investigate costs of transportation and tours to the convention city.
1. The committee shall receive prices and tour information from at least two (2) travel agencies.
  2. The committee shall present all tour information to the District Governor and his Cabinet and shall give their recommendation to accept the best tour.
- B. The Cabinet shall decide by majority vote which tour to accept.
- C. No Lion or any other person shall accept or receive free or reduced fares for any tour.
- D. All free seats on the airline/bus, or any free accommodations/meals, or any other financial inducements offered by a tour agency shall be sold, and the proceeds placed in the District Administration Fund. In lieu of this distribution, at the discretion of the District Governor and the Cabinet, the proceeds may be divided equally among all passengers on the tour.
