District N2

17 Scott Lane, Milford, NS, B0N 1Y0

(H) 902-758-1927 (C) 902-758-5166

Fellow Lions of District N2,

I would like to start the year by giving you my Mission Statement: To encourage Lions to “Be The Change” within themselves and their clubs so that we are able to do more, be more and serve more in our communities.

I am extremely fortunate to have such a great team of Lions working with me this year. We are all here to serve you. We are looking forward to working with our fellow Lions throughout the District and providing even more service within our communities.

I am asking Lions to communicate often with your fellow Lions. Inform them of changes. Keep every single Lion in the loop because change is uncomfortable for people who don't know what's going on. Call meetings, send out memos and maintain a general openness with your members. I'm asking that you set goals with your team. Promote productivity and establish within your fellow Lions an interest in the organization's future by meeting with them, setting SMART goals and brainstorming ways to achieve those goals.

Call your fellow Lions to action. Encourage them to join in on the change so they can continue to be a strong part of the diverse future in Lions. Avoid scaring them but establish a sense of urgency. We need to keep our Lions family in the fold.

Understand what is expected of you, whether you are a member or a team leader, make others aware of your expectations. Learn something new about your fellow Lion. What motivates them? What do THEY want to change. Help them Be The Change.

Lions, I am here to serve you. I look forward to seeing and hearing all the great things you are doing throughout the District.

After getting around town in her old push wheelchair, Jessica Hollis was very happy to receive the use of an electric wheelchair from the Amherst Lions Club. Jessica tries out her wheelchair as her mother, Bonnie Hollis, and Lion Rubin Millard look on.

Wreaths Taken to Sea Sunday August 18, 2019

On a cloudy afternoon the wreaths and flowers were removed from the Seamen's Memorial and transported to Whitman's Wharf by Lions Dave MacMillan. Lions Ray and Judy White passed out wreaths to area boats participating in the boat parade. The boats joined the lead boat the "Melissa and Papa III" with captain Bill Bond for a boat parade. The thirty-seven boats circled Canso Harbour and left Canso Harbour and sailed to the Chedabucto Bay. When all the boats circled around the Melissa and Papa III Lion Ray White welcomed all the participation boats Deacon Alonzo Reddick from Tracadie United Baptist church read a special prayer which was broadcaster to the boats in the parade. Following the moment of silence wreaths were placed at sea by, Lions Judy and Ray White from the Canso Lions Club, captain Bill Bond in memory of lost fishermen and women and Deacon Alonzo Reddick for area clergy. The boats in the parade placed wreaths and flowers following the silence, Seamen Memorial Co-Chair Lion Ray White thanked the boat owners for their participation in the 43rd Annual Boat Parade and laying wreaths at sea.
