Nova Scotia is Home

Might not be tonight, tomorrow or the next day, but everything is going to be ok.

#NovaScotia Strong

To all Lions and citizens of Nova Scotia: On behalf of the District N 1 Lions, we wish to extend our deepest condolences on the recent activity in your Province. It is unfortunate that events like this, at times, appears to happen when often are ill prepared to deal with such matters. Any time multiple casualties are involved, it is those left behind that suffer the most when trying to deal with the tragedy. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and the first responders that must deal with such tragedy. From a personal viewpoint, I know it is not easy as I have had my share while working as a funeral attendant and EMT. Know this: We don't walk alone ... Those we love are always with us. May the loving memories of days gone by bring you the strength you need today! With Deepest Sympathy.

Dear Fellow Lions,

I hope all Lions are healthy and doing ok. I know this is not how we envisioned our Spring to start. There have been a lot of changes and challenges that have come with this Coronavirus that has impacted the entire world. Our District being under a State of Emergency has brought so many questions, concerns and stress to our families, Lions members and our communities. The stories I have heard so far of how our Lions are “finding new ways” to serve our communities safely is very commendable and our District thanks you for your dedicated service and willingness to try change in these tough times. I ask that you put your stories on our District website and Facebook page so that all our lions can see your innovations.

I know a lot of you are wondering about where this puts our Lions in the foreseeable future. The Zone Chairs will be contacting club presidents to see how clubs are planning their elections and to see if any assistance is needed. We will be carrying out District elections via email and postal delivery. A letter from the CST Scott will be coming out shortly. We are trying our best to accommodate all Lions across the district. As you know, the Spring Convention for Amherst had to be cancelled. I would like to extend a thank you to the Amherst Lions for all the work they did in preparing what would have been a great Convention. I do hope to hold a one-day event before July 1st, but of course, a lot is unknown at this time.

I know some Lions feel that there is nothing that they can do right now in the way of service, but not only do we need to support our communities, but we need to support our fellow Lions members too. I ask that you “check in” on your Lions family via email or a phone call. As many of you have heard me say, we are all one big Lions family in this District.

With some of you having lots of “free time” on your hands. I am including the link to the Lions online trainings that you may be interested in. It is always good to challenge ourselves to learn new things and Lions International offers so much for us to do that. I have been personally calling some members who have requested on-line training and walking them through it over the phone. If you would like that, just call me or another member of the GAT team and we will get you started.

Take care all, Your District Governor

AMHERST LIONS KEEPS THEIR COMMUNITY ROLLING ON

Stephen Brown's wheelchair was eleven years old and getting in very bad shape. The Amherst Lions Club presented Mr. Brown with the use of a newer wheelchair. Here, he and Scooter/Wheelchair Committee Chair, Rubin Millard look over his new chair.

John Martin was no longer able to use the scooter the Amherst Lions Club had given him to help him get around. So instead they presented him with a motorized wheelchair for his use. Here committee chair, Rubin Millard, shows John some of the features of his chair.

Recycle for Sight program

Have you ever noticed these boxes in certain locations around the community, and wondered about the story behind them? For more than 80 years, with the help of Lions around the world and the Recycle for Sight program, Lions Clubs International has been bringing clear vision to millions, one pair of glasses at a time.

Locally through this program in the Lions N2 District of Nova Scotia, Lions collect new and gently used eyeglasses and sunglasses in these collection boxes.

The collection boxes are typically placed in optometrist offices, pharmacies, large grocery stores, churches, and Lions halls. Once collected, the glasses then require sorting into 'reuse' and 'recycle' categories. The 'reuse' glasses are then sent to a collection centre in Newfoundland where they are tested for the prescription type and if the prescription is within range that is required by Canadian Lion's Eyeglasses Recycling Centre, they are then sent to Calgary to be distributed, usually through humanitarian missions, all around the world.

The eyeglasses that fall into the 'recycle' category are sent to a facility where they are recycled for the metal, glass and plastic components.

Lion volunteers and eye care professionals screen thousands of children around the world during sight missions, providing them – free of charge – with prescription lenses and frames.

The numbers are staggering. Each year, Lions collect about 30 million pairs of glasses worldwide. Even in the Lions N2 District (Nova Scotia), the numbers are very impressive. In the last 5 years, Nova Scotians have contributed almost 240,000 pairs of glasses, 42,000 lenses, and 28,000 cases (even the metal cases have scrap metal value!)

The Lions N2 District has also donated non-prescription sunglasses to the 'Christmas Shoebox Project' that goes to needed countries and are given to children at Christmas. As well, additional non-prescription adult sunglasses are sent to the NWT to give to people in need of protection from the sun's glare off the snow.

Lion Russell Maillet, Recycle for Sight N2 District Chair, has worked tirelessly on this project for 5 years now and the very positive result is that the quality of life is improved for people who receive this gift of sight.

The Lions motto is 'We Serve' and this is just one project where the Lions Clubs excel.

HALIFAX -- A local organization has stepped up to help children affected by the Nova Scotia shootings by offering grief kits. Lions Clubs International has clubs all over the world, including 71 in Nova Scotia.

“We are the largest non-profit volunteer organization in the world. Our motto is ‘We Serve,’” says Debbie McGinley, the District Governor for Nova Scotia Lions.

The organization, open to anyone 18 years or older, is dedicated to helping others.

“We have millions of Lions all over the world and Lions are committed to serving the public in whatever way is needed,” says McGinley. Lions Clubs in Nova Scotia have stepped up to help during the COVID-19 pandemic, offering acts of service like delivering groceries and medications.

“A lot of us registered with 211. You can call 211 if you need assistance. They’ll direct you to where you might be able to get assistance from and we’re able to provide help in this area,” says McGinley.

“A lot of clubs help with food banks, seniors in the community, providing medical equipment as required.”

When a mass shooting happened last month, claiming the lives of 22 Nova Scotians and affecting numerous communities, the Lions were there to lend a helping hand.

“The closest Lions Club is the Parrsboro Lions Club, they assisted the RCMP by providing officers with coffee and other items while they working,” says McGinley.

Lions Clubs are also dedicated to helping the youth in their community through a program called Lions Quest Canada - a registered charitable organization dedicated to fostering positive youth development.

One of the tools Lions Quest Canada provides is a grief kit, which includes a book and memory box, designed to aid parents, educators, and friends help a child cope with death.

“One of the things that happened is, after 911 there was a lot of children that were grieving, so that’s why they developed the grief kit that has the book, ‘Where is Robert?’ (by Christine Dernerderlanden) to help them understand what happens when someone passes and that it’s OK to have different emotions,” says McGinley.

“Because I knew of this program, I decided that this would be a great thing that the district could do. So I contacted the principal at Debert Elementary for permission, and he was of course 100 per cent willing, so we purchased them for the entire student body.”

McGinley delivered the kits to the school last week. The school’s guidance counsellor and a grief counsellor are set to distribute them to the children.

McGinley has also been in contact with the RCMP to provide grief kits to the families of the victims.

“If it’s able to help one child to deal with their grief then we have succeeded as Lions in providing a service to those in need,” says McGinley.

“As Lions, our main purpose is to try and make someone else’s life better if we can.”
