Vol. 51 No. 6 May/June 2019

On May 24th Riverport and District Lions Club hosted their annual Open House Appreciation Night at the Lunenburg Fire Hall and invited sponsors, volunteers and citizens to come and be updated on the projects the Lions have been engaged in this past year.

Guest speaker Kerry D'Eon Tench representing Diabetes Canada, Nova Scotia Branch spoke about Camp Lion Maxwell which happens every year in August in Barss Corner Lunenburg County and mentioned other programs for youth sponsored by the Nova Scotia Branch of Diabetes Canada.

Riverport and District Lions Club is part of Zone 9 in District N2. This year Zone 9 designated Lion Camp Maxwell for it's zone project. All money raised for the zone project goes to support Camp Lion Maxwell. For over 30 years Lions clubs across Nova Scotia have supported this camp which accommodates 64 campers ages 7 to 12 from across the Maritimes who are living with Type 1 Diabetes.

Riverport and District Lions Club held a merchandise bingo, sold raffle tickets and held a dinner to raise money for the zone project and all proceeds were donated. The Riverport club proudly presented a donation in the amount of $3000.00.

AMHERST

King Lion Geoff Siddal, of the Amherst Lions Club, presents a cheque to Sarah Payne, of Sexual Health Care for Cumberland County, in support of the summer programs they put on to promote self-esteem for young and teen girls. This year they will be hosting five weeks of programs.

Robert McManaman smiles as he enjoys his new scooter. The scooter was given to him for his use by the Amherst Lions Club. Mr McManaman no longer drives and needs the scooter to get around town to shop and visit friends.
