ENFIELD/ELMSDALE & DISTRICT LIONS CLUB

Another Successful Project by the Enfield, Elmsdale & District Lions Club

A few of months ago the Enfield, Elmsdale and District Lions Club received a request from their local MLA to assist an elderly couple in their 80's/90's in Nine Mile River with replacing their old deck. Their deck, which is the only access to their mobile home, had decayed to the point that it had partially collapsed, was unsafe and needed to be replaced. The request was unanimously approved by the membership at their first meeting in September.

Thanks to the generosity of local businesses and the assistance of several Lions, the project was successfully completed.

DG'S
OCTOBER 2016
NEWS LETTER

Autumn is here and the weather is getting cooler but I have received only warmth from all the clubs I visited in September. Eleven clubs opened their doors to me, they fed me awesome food, gave me lovely gifts and made generous donations to Literacy Nova Scotia. Wow, what a month!

I had the pleasure of attending PDG Alex and Lion Cherry Hancox's 65th Wedding Anniversary in Sackville.

I had the honour of attending two Charter Nights – Bedford's 70th and Louisdale's 47th. Lions are here for the long haul.

In September I also had the privilege of Inducting eight new Lions, this is wonderful. Thanks to all the members who brought these good Lions into the Pride.

We are having four Introduction and Orientation Sessions in October, please make sure you attend one of them. The first one is in Pictou on Oct., 8th, two are on Oct. 22 in Eastern Passage/Cow Bay and Digby. The fourth is in Enfield/Elmsdale on Oct. 29th.

Lion Jane Gregory and her team from Lawrencetown & District Lions really outdid themselves. What an incredible weekend we all had at our Fall Cabinet Meeting. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Our Guest Speaker at the Banquet was Bev Berger, she came with her dog Lotus. Bev gave a wonderful talk on Dog Guides and how we Lions are making a difference in her world and others in Canada.

SACKVILLE LIONS COMBATING WORLD HUNGER

Feeding the hungry is one of the major challenges that Lions throughout the world are facing each day.

The Sackville (NS) Lions Club is a very strong supporter of Beacon House Food Bank in Lower Sackville. Recently the Sackville (NS) Lions Club and Auction Direct Car Sales in Lower Sackville teamed up to help fight the problem.

Auction Direct repainted an old Access-a-Bus with the logo "The Big Hungry Bus" and made it available to Lions in the area to do food drives for the community.

On September 8, 9, and 10, 2016, the Big Hungry Bus was parked at Sobey's Downsview Mall, where the Sackville Lions were able, with the help and cooperation of the public and Sobey's limited, to collect 30 cartons of food items for Beacon House Food Bank. The Lions Club thank Auction Direct, Sobey's Limited and the public for making this project a success.
