DGE Lion Rodney McConnell Update:

The state convention was hosted the first weekend of May by district M4 at the Stoney Creek conference center in St. Joseph. Special guest for the weekend was Sung-Yul Choi, president-elect of Lions International.

First on the agenda Thursday was the fourth and final Council of Governors meeting. Beyond the usual routine business, there were recommendations by the Investment Committee as to where to place the monies that are held in the Missouri Lions accounts to earn the best return while still maintaining safety and liquidity. In the end, it was decided that approximately one-third of the money will be invested in extremely secure, relatively short-term instruments, with the balance continuing to be held in conventional bank accounts.

PID Donal Knip gave an update on membership. Worldwide, 16,348 more Lions joined the organization in the past year, bringing the total to just under 1.5 million, while here in Missouri, we have 8537 Lions, a net loss of 294 members since a year ago.

An addition to the multiple district policy manual was adopted. It covers how information on Missouri Lions members contact information can be shared and utilized.

Outgoing DG Joe Foster was named state coordinator for the Global Leadership Team.

The KidSight chair reported that districts M1, M4 and ~~M6~~ M2 each acquired a new vision screening camera with grant funds supplied by LCIF.

PDG Casey Morris, Athletic Committee chair reported that 60 players have been recruited for the annual all-star football game to be played in Warrensburg in July. Cost for each player to participate is $750, so clubs and individual Lions are encouraged to buy ads in the annual football game program. Information on how to do this may be obtained from PDG Morris.

The meeting closed with an opportunity for each of this year's departing governors to share some "words of wisdom" with their replacements, who will take office at the International Convention in Milan, Italy in July.

Seminars and lunch for all the officers and their spouses filled most of the daytime hours on Friday.

Friday evening the traditional hospitality night took place, with the first vice governors from each district providing Italian themed food items. I had arranged for a Gelato dessert bar to be brought in, and in cooperation with District M6, we served 6 different flavors of the very smooth tasting Italian ice cream for over 4 hours.

A silent auction was held and raised several hundred dollars from a large collection of food and souvenir baskets and other widely assorted items. President Choi mingled and provided "photo ops" throughout the early part of the evening.

Saturday morning there was a second session highlighting reports from L-BOMB, Leader Dog, Mid South Sight and Hearing, and others. Lunch featured an impressive group of tail-twisters from throughout the state who knew just whom to approach for a sizable fine, followed by presentations on LCIF and the state Peace Poster contest winner.

Saturday evening featured the highlight of the weekend, with the formal banquet introducing current and incoming governors, and a keynote speech from the weekend's honored guest, incoming International President from Korea, Sung-Yul Choi.

President-Elect Choi told about his youth growing up poor in Korea, under threat of attack from the North, and offered his appreciation to the U.S. for protecting South Korea from invasion. He explained that he has a "soft spot" for the state of Missouri, having gotten his start in the import/export business many years ago with a contract with St. Louis based Buster Brown shoes. He also spoke directly to what he refers to on a regular basis as "his governors" (next year's incoming group, including me), whom he challenged to promote his emphasis on the LCIF Campaign 100 initiative, while giving assurance that he will always be just a phone call away if we need any assistance. He encouraged all Lions to join the "front line", become leaders, and work to increase our membership, while at the same time promoting diversity in the organization.

The convention concluded Sunday morning with the traditional memorial service honoring those Lions who had passed in the last 12 months.

Bloomfield:

Assisted the local Chamber of Commerce in hosting the annual spring carnival this weekend. They have awarded three scholarships to Bloomfield High School students.

Charleston:

Conducted their annual Man/Woman of the Year Banquet in mid-March. Glenn Fennell Jr., long time Lion and past club President, was Man of the Year, and local resident and civic activist Mary Jane Whitehead was honored as Woman of the Year. Special guest at the banquet was Lion DG Elect Rodney McConnell.

As usual operated their food trailer at the annual dogwood-azalea festival in April. Despite cold, rainy weather in the weeks prior, the final day Saturday April 20 showed much improvement with a good turnout of spectators which in turn meant a good number of patrons for the Lions food! Net proceeds exceeded $2,000. This helped to fund the three annual scholarships awarded to graduating seniors at Charleston High School this month.

Members will begin selling advertising in the long-running football program book the first week of July. This has been the club's most successful fundraiser for many years.

The club treasurer is preparing to send in the club's annual donations to Leader Dogs, LCIF, World Services for the Blind, Kenny Rogers Center, and others.

Officer election process is underway, and the club will soon install a new member.

Dexter:

Had a successful waffle day fundraiser in April, raising over $2,000.

Are providing funds for two local high school senior boys to attend Boys State and three girls to attend Girls State this summer.

Awarded $5,000 in scholarships to 2019 Dexter High School graduates.

Essex-Gray Ridge:

Members are busy with the spring planting season, so activities have been minimal. The club did approve the awarding of $1,000 in scholarships to Richland HS grads. Food and supplies were also donated to the Richland "Project Prom" function.

The club once again generously agreed to assist Lions of Sikeston with their annual "Sprockets in Spring" bicycle ride fundraiser. Members opened their "Lions Den" as a rest stop for cyclists on the 65 and 100 mile routes, and enjoyed the interaction with the participants.

Club members will soon start preparing for the annual Mae Hall Park day coming up August 2. Area Lions are invited to attend.

Sikeston:

Ran their 4th annual "Sprockets in Spring" bike ride fundraiser, with assistance from Lions Clubs in Charleston, Essex, and Bernie. As in 2018, the weather the morning of the event appeared rainy and resulted in a depressed turnout. However, both the Lions and the cyclists did not let this affect them, and the ride went on with around 75 riders. As most of the supplies were donated and volunteers staffed the event, a net profit was still made.

The weather gods smiled on the annual club golf tournament, with beautiful clear skies bringing well over 100 golfers to the Fox Haven course in mid-April. Although sponsorships were a little lower than in previous years, the proceeds should exceed $10,000 once all bills are paid and fees collected.

President Steve Mc Pheeters attended the Sikeston High School honors banquet and awarded the annual Frank Ferrell memorial scholarship to a deserving student.

The club conducted the quarterly cleanup of their adopted portion of North Main St in early May.

In conjunction with District Governor Elect Rodney McConnell, and District Secretary Jennie Mosher, the Sikeston club hosted a club officer training night in late April. Cubs from throughout the middle and southern part of the district were also invited to attend, and Malden and Patton clubs each had several members in attendance.

Elections for officers were held, and for the first time in club history, Sikeston Lions will have women filling all positions!

Club member and past President Lion Rodney McConnell represented the club at the annual MD26 state convention in late April, and will also attend the International Convention in Milan, Italy in July where he will be officially installed as M1 District Governor.

All of us appreciate the effort of the Clubs in M1 related to sharing their Service Activities via Social Media! We have a "Post Reach" of 461, which may seem steep, so if we go with a faithful weekly audience of 200, that represents 20% or better of our Membership. The District Facebook Page received 589 Likes, Comments and/or Shares over the past month. Along with the Facebook page, we have the website that includes all of the wonderful News Letters produced by Cabinet Secretary Lion Jennie... check it out!

Mid-South Lions Sight and Hearing Service

Lion Jennie Mosher

Mid-South Lions Sight and Hearing Service is having their 4th Annual Ivan Marais Cataract-a-Thon. Patient screening is being held on May 18th with the goal of identifying 25-30 patients for corrective eye surgery at the University Tennessee Hamilton Eye Institute (HEI) on June 22nd.

Lion Leader Weekend and Annual "Give the Gifts" Auction was a great success. Over one hundred leaders from our 4 state areas attended the event; including our own DGE Lion Rodney McConnell. We had a huge number of silent auction items this year donated by different Lions Clubs. I do not know exactly how much money was raised but it was almost all profit as the auction committee had gotten funds donated to cover the cost of the weekend.

Now we are preparing for our second big fundraiser June 6th; our annual Golf Tournament at Cherokee Valley Golf Course in Olive Branch, Mississippi. Sponsor a team, a specific hole or just sponsor anything. Join us for the fun. Come join in the fun! June 7th will be our annual membership meeting at the HEI; incoming president will be Lion Art Ritter from Arkansas.
