District Governor Ken Ball reviewed with the cabinet the email he will send with the narrative, the receipts and the pictures for the Lytton Emergency Grant.

Motion to approve the report to close out the Lytton Emergency Grant

Motion: ZC Galen Laird 2nd: ZC Carol Torset CARRIED

The two new grants were discussed.

ZC Galen Laird is chairing the work in Whatcom County. Money can be sent to Lynden Lions Flood Relief, 1619 Kok Rd, Lynden, WA 98264.

PCC Surinder Gahir is chairing the work in the Abbotsford area. Money can be sent to Abbotsford Lions Club, PO Box 206, Abbotsford, BC V2T 6Z5.

ZC Bruce Bennewith pointed out that there may be need in the Chilliwack area. Money can be sent to Chilliwack Mt. Cheam Lions Club, PO Box 249 Stn Main, Chilliwack, BC V2P 6J1

It was noted that there should be information shared in the communities about the work that Lions are doing to help with flood relief. Lion Patty Allen-White shared that Bellingham Central is buying an ad to let the public know about the money that their club is donating. District Governor Ken Ball suggested that those working on the grants work with Rosemary Small, Public Relations Chair. Miles Baron asked about press releases. He has some contacts. ZC Gary Kingston will look into articles in BC papers. PDG Patty Allen-White noted that the coolers in the pictures had the Lions logo on them. She urged that we think about that moving forward.

The meeting adjourned at 7:55 pm.

Cabinet Secretary Katy Carter
