Presidents Message

Dear Club Leader,

The end of the year is a time for giving thanks and celebrating holidays with friends and family. For many of us, this is a cherished time of year, but for the over 800 million people who go to bed hungry every night, it can be an especially hard time.

That's why I'm asking your club to make the holidays brighter for our neighbors in need. Celebrate the generosity of Lions by planning a project to help hungry children and families in your community.

And if your club is looking to make an even bigger difference, consider giving to Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF). For nearly 50 years, our foundation has helped bring lasting hope to people in need around the world. In fact, LCIF is one of the best ways to turn money into service.

As Lions, we have so much to be thankful for. Join me in celebrating an amazing year of accomplishments by putting the Power of Service to work in your club. Sincerely,

Dr. Naresh Aggarwal
Your International President

Take a Stand against Hunger over the Holidays

Too many families struggle to put food on the table, and it becomes even more heartbreaking during the holidays. Plus, relieving hunger is one of the best ways to invest in your community's economy and security.
You can make a difference by joining the Worldwide Week of Service to Fight Hunger this January 8-14. So start planning today!

Give a Gift that can Change the World

Sometimes the world's problems feel too big for us to address alone.
That's where Lions Clubs International Foundation comes in. In 2018, LCIF is celebrating 50 years of helping Lions tackle global problems by funding large-scale Lion service projects. You can help. Every dollar makes the world a better place, so donate to LCIF today.

Want to give a child a shot at life?
Help us reach our US\$30 million goal to fight measles!

Dear Lion Leaders,

At the recently concluded board meeting in Dubai, the Executive Officers appointed International President Naresh Aggarwal as the Chairperson of the Global Action Team (GAT), with assistance from Third Vice President Judge Haynes Townsend.
PIP Barry Palmer was appointed as Vice Chair of the Global Service Team (GST).

The newly appointed leaders will continue to be supported by PIP Mahendra Amarasuriya, Vice Chair of the Global Membership Team (GMT) and PIP Wayne Madden, Vice Chair of the Global Leadership Team (GLT).

In addition, given the importance of the GAT for our organization, I have appointed Noel Mason, Division Manager of Club Supplies and Supply

Chain Operations as the Group Team Leader for GAT. In his new role as Division Manager for GAT, Club
Supplies and Supply Chain Operations, Noel will primarily focus on GAT, working closely with the GAT managers Michael DiMaria, Tamara Ivetic and Dawn Mangiarulo and their teams to support our Executives.

I am excited about the new roles and appointments, and look forward to a productive year for the Global Action Team.

Thank you for your support.

J. Frank Moore III
Interim Executive Administrator &
Secretary

Happy International Leo Day!

Dear Leos and Lions:

On December 5, 1957, Lions Jim Graver and William Ernst created the world's first Leo club in Pennsylvania, USA. These Lions recognized the Power of We. They understood that young people possess unbound potential to lead positive change. They believed that when we come together, the world's problems become smaller.
When Lions and Leos serve together, the impossible becomes possible.

Over the past 60 years, the Leo movement has continued to grow into a network of over 7,000 clubs in 145 countries. Leos continue to build upon our association's tradition of service to meet emerging global need

I have witnessed the commitment and perseverance of Leos both in-person and also through the International Leo Day Video Contest.
Leos from 25 countries shared why they serve and how they have taken action in their communities. Please join me in congratulating the winners of the contest:

- 3rd Place: Olongapo City Leo Club (Philippines)
- 2nd Place: Juhu Leo Club (India)
- 1st Place: Medan Stallion Leo Club (Indonesia)

Happy 60th Anniversary to all Leos! I applaud your continued engagement and efforts to tackle our world's greatest challenges.

Sincerely,

Dr. Naresh Aggarwal
Your International President

The West Milton Lions

enjoyed a night out with spouses to celebrate Christmas. They dined at Basil's On Market in Troy.

The event was well attended and all enjoyed their meal and the fellowship.

Looking Forward, Looking Back

The Lions Club emblem was initially developed by a founding Lion, Maurice Blink, way back in 1920. He said it represented "a lion facing the past with pride and the future with confidence, looking in all directions to render service." That pretty well describes the Tri-Village Lions as we round out December, 2017, and look forward to a new year of service.

Our Get-a-Book, Give a Book program continues. In December, we gave away more than 750 gently used books at four shelters run by the National Church Residences. That brings our total to more than 3500 books shared in 2017. We also took the next step in supporting CureJM, with our "Visit to Santa's Workshop" netting $1000 for this important charity. We took 81 stuffed animals up to the North Pole for a visit, and the children who sent their best friends were thrilled to hear all about the trip when we returned.

As the New Year approaches, our new-found focus on diabetes awareness and screening will take center stage in our activities throughout the winter months. We received training from the Central Ohio Diabetes Association (CODA) on how to conduct the screening. In January, we'll begin by screening our own members at an upcoming meeting, then share that training with the Tri-Village Lions and with other Lions in District OH-5 so that we can offer screening throughout the community. We are already trying to establish dates for training for Lions from Zone 5, and will be offering training as part of the District's Lions Roar training in June. If others are interested in being trained for screening, please contact Lion Jane Jarrow.

Three Resources for Strengthening Cybersecurity in the New Year 12/19/2017

Every New Year brings an opportunity for a fresh start. Charities often launch new strategic plans, fundraising initiatives, or program services in January. Another item that charities should add to their to-do list for the coming year is to strengthen their cybersecurity practices.

International headlines have been made about serious data breaches at major corporations. (This year's Equifax data breach is an example.) Some groups may believe that cybercriminals are only interested in victimizing large corporations or that charities, particularly smaller organizations, have no need to worry. The truth is that charities of all sizes can be vulnerable to cyberattacks.

Charities hold all kinds of data that are valued by those committing cybercrimes, such as personal and financial information about donors, clients, and staff members. Unfortunately, charities throughout the country have had their computer systems and websites taken over by cybercriminals who demand payment to return the information, or they discover that sensitive financial and health information has been shared on the dark web, potentially used by criminals.

The integrity of an organization can be greatly injured by cyberattacks, and the costs of recovering information and adjusting IT systems following an attack can be significant. Plus, while larger organizations often have IT departments to manage these issues, small charities may have only one or two people who must be attentive to cybersecurity on top of many other issues.

To assist organizations, the Ohio Attorney General's Office is providing several cybersecurity resources including:

- 1 Cybersecurity webinar on Jan. 10. The office's Charitable Law Section will hold a special webinar in conjunction with the Attorney General's CyberOhio unit at noon on Jan. 10, 2018, to address ways that charitable organizations can protect their information. Register for this webinar online.
- 2 Data breach prevention and response guide. The Attorney General's "Data Breach Prevention and Response Guide" highlights key principles of sound data security, tips on training employees to prevent a data breach, and steps to take in response to a breach.

- 3 CyberOhio newsletter. The Attorney General's CyberOhio newsletter covers cybersecurity topics, such as how to make a smartphone more secure, how to avoid a phishing attack, and why passphrases are better than passwords.

Charities should make it a priority to adopt a cybersecurity plan that includes such steps as evaluating the types of information available within the organization and who has access to it; training employees to take precautions against a breach by avoiding phishing schemes and other suspicious activities; and determining what steps will be taken if a breach occurs. These issues will be reviewed in the Jan. 10 webinar and also are outlined in the "Data Breach Prevention and Response Guide" produced by the Ohio Attorney General's CyberOhio initiative.

Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine launched the CyberOhio initiative in 2016 to help foster a legal, technical, and collaborative cybersecurity environment to help Ohio businesses thrive. The initiative includes several components, such as examining and promoting cybersecurity legislation, offering cybersecurity training opportunities, and developing cybersecurity workforce personnel. One of the goals of CyberOhio is to increase awareness of the importance of data breach prevention among small businesses and charities.

"The highest result of education is tolerance. Long ago men fought and died for their faith; but it took ages to teach them the other kind of courage, — the courage to recognize the faiths of their brethren and their rights of conscience."

~ Helen Keller
