Quickly find the next session and go to the location where there will be nothing. It's just an empty field. Start building various objects, which in the future will serve as your defense. Build a shelter and provide yourself with a comfortable position to shoot, and then start a fair fight, the victory in which will get the strongest. The external stylization of the project is made in three-dimensional style. Everything looks very funny and at the same time quite simple. Here, nothing can distract you from the fight, concentrate on the battle and try to destroy your opponent before he does it. The essence of the application is to participate in numerous PvP fights. Battle against real users from all over the world, quickly build up some cover so as not to be an easy fall for the opponent and start your attack. Take part in numerous battles, sharpen your skills and enjoy a good time, which will give you 1v1.LOL - Online Building & Shooting Simulator.
