You can also redeem the Walmart gift cards at Sams Club even when you have the gift card from Sams Club. The Walmart Credit Card is a retailer credit card available for Walmart customers. Similar to other retailer credit cards, the card comes with a host of store brand benefits. You will also access several rewards and the fact that you can use it at Sams Club, a business under Walmart. Here is all you need to know about using the card at Sams Club. The Walmart credit card is one of the most popular retailer credit cards. Walmart offers this card in partnership with MasterCard as the processor and Capital One as the issuer. You can use this card in all Walmart brands, including Sams Club. There are two cards available for customers; the Walmart MasterCard and the Walmart Rewards Card. Walmart and Capital One approve your request for the card based on your credit score. If you have a good or excellent credit score, you will get automatic approval for the Walmart MasterCard, but if your credit score is less than perfect, you will get a Walmart Rewards Card. Regardless of the card you get, Walmart does not charge an annual fee. You will also enjoy zero liability fraud protection, and you can apply for special financing any time of the year. The interest rates on the two cards vary with the MasterCard having a minimum annual interest rate of 17.99% and the Rewards Card having an annual interest of 26.99%. You can use the Walmart MasterCard in any store that accepts MasterCard, including Sams Club, Sams Club online, and many others. You can use it in grocery stores, airlines, restaurants, and any other place with a MasterCard sign. When you use this card at Sams Club or any other store, you get several rewards. For starters, you get five percent for all purchases on Walmart.com and a two percent rebate on Walmart stores. When you use the card for restaurants and travel premises, you get a two percent rebate and one percent for any other purchase you make using the card. The only challenge with using the card at Sams Club is that you only get a one percent rebate for all purchases and payments you make at Sams Club. Due to this, members at Sams Club prefer to use the Sams Club physical card to make their purchases. The Walmart Rewards card has terms that are different from that of the MasterCard. However, you can still use it in stores that accept MasterCard. Some of the places where you can use your card include: All Sams Club branded gas stations In-store purchases at Sams Club Walmart.com Walmart stores anywhere in the United States Walmart App Walmart gas stations Murphy USA gas stations You cannot use the Walmart Rewards Card for Sams Club online purchases. You also cannot use it for in-store vendors or for Sams Club app purchases. When you use this card, you will enjoy five percent rebates for shopping at Walmart.com and two percent rebates for shopping at Walmart stores. There are no special rebates for when you use the card at any of the Walmart-branded stores. This is the only disadvantage of using this card compared to the MasterCard. Sams Club is a retailer of choice for so many people. The store offers several payment options, including Walmart Rewards Card and the Walmart MasterCard. Besides the two cards from Walmart, you can pay using gift cards from Walmart and Sams Club, Sams Club Credit, cash, or you can also use a check. The store also accepts payment through MasterCard, Visa, American Express, and Discover Cards. Shoppers can also use the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits offered by the government. People who shop at Sams Club a lot can go for the Sams Club membership or their credit card and enjoy the benefits that come with these payment options. As a member of Sams Club, you will enjoy huge discounts with everything you shop. You also get benefits from tax services. Members will enjoy these benefits from more than 10,000 stores around the country. You can use these gift cards to pay for gas and other purchases. Walmart offers their cards as plastic gift cards and digital eGift cards, and you can redeem these two cards at Sams Club. You can use the physical Walmart gift card for all purchases at Sams Club or at any of the Walmart gas stations. The gift cards are also accepted at Walmart.com and Sams Club online and all you need is to input the cards PIN. The card comes with its PIN under the scratch-off area at its back. If the card doesn't come with a PIN, you can only use it at a physical store. If you are not a Sams Club member, you will pay a 10 percent service fee to use the gift card at Sams Club physical store or Sams Club online. The eGift cards can be used the same way as the physical cards. You can use them on the Sams Club physical stores and online as well as Walmart Stores and Walmart.com. You can also use the eGift card to pay for gas. All you have to do is print out the gift card email and exchange it for a physical gift card from any Walmart store. You can use this option at any of the Sams Club stores. You can use the Walmart fuel stations app to locate the nearest gas stations associated with Walmart. This makes it easier for you to know where you can use the Walmart credit card and where the card is not accepted. To use the app, download it and create an account with Walmart+ and another at the Walmart app. From there, launch the Get pumping feature and a QR code scanner will appear. Scan the QR code that you use on the pump screen to make payment. Select the fuel grade and start fueling. You will get a receipt on your app when you are finished. It was founded in 1983 and named after Walmart founder Sam Walton as Sam's Wholesale Club.[4] As of January 31, 2025[update], Sam's Club ranks second in sales volume among warehouse clubs with $90.2 billion in sales, ahead of B1's Wholesale Club but behind its main rival Costco.[5] As of May18, 2025[update], Sam's Club operates 600 membership warehouse clubs in the United States across 44 states and Puerto Rico, with no locations in Alaska, Massachusetts, Oregon, Rhode Island, Washington State, and Vermont[6]. Sam's Club offers car wash services at 41 locations. [7][8]Sam's Club also operates 173 locations in Mexico and 48 locations in China.[8] Grupo Brg, formerly Walmart Brazil, which was de-consolidated from Walmart in August 2018 and since then is part of Carrefour Group, also operates 58 Sam's Club locations in Brazil and to operate them pay a fee for the use of the brand. Locations generally range in size from 32,000[6]168,000sqft (3,000[15]600,0m2), with an average club size of approximately 134,000sqft (12,400m2).[9] Sam's Club had six locations in Canada from 2006 to 2009.Founder Sam WaltonFormer Sam's Club logo, used from 2006 to 2019.Sam Walton opened the first Sam's Wholesale Club on April 7, 1983, in Midwest City, Oklahoma. 21 years after he founded Walmart.[10][11] In 1987, Wal-Mart Stores purchased West Monroe, Louisiana-based SuperSaver Wholesale Warehouse Club; the purchase expanded the Sam's Wholesale Club chain by 24 locations. Prior to the acquisition, the stores were owned by Alton Hardy Howard and his son John.[11] In 1989, Sam's Wholesale Club opened its first club in New Jersey in a former Two Guys/Jefferson Ward store located in Delran. This was Walmart's first expansion into the Northeast.[12] In 1990, Sam's Wholesale Club was renamed Sam's Club, dropping off "Wholesale". The same year, the first Sam's Club opened in Pennsylvania.[13] In 1993, Walmart acquired PACE Membership (an independent member of PACE Memberships), a chain of PACE Memberships in the United States. [14]Sam Walton entered the Southern market (all below the Great Smoky Mountains) in 2003.[15]The latest flagship club opening as of September3, 2007[update], was in Fayetteville, Arkansas. The largest Sam's Club store is located in Pineville, North Carolina, with 185,000sqft (17,200m2) of retail space that was formerly an Incredible Universe. On September 24, 2006, Sam's Club unveiled a new logo with an updated serif font.[16]Starting in April 2007, there was speculation of a possible sale or spinoff of Sam's Club from parent company Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. [17][18]On February 26, 2009, Walmart Canada announced that it would be closing all six of its Canadian Sam's Club locations.[19][20][21] This was part of Walmart Canada's decision to shift focus towards supercenters, but some industry observers suggested that the operation was struggling in competition with Costco and the non-membership The Real Canadian Superstore (known as Maxi & Cie in Quebec), that had a well-established history in the country. Sam's Club also rebranded the two as yet unopened locations as new Walmart Supercenters.[22] In January 2010, it was announced that ten clubs would be closing, including four in California. At the same time, Sam's opened six new clubs at various locations in the United States.[23]On January 24, 2010, it was announced that approximately 11,200 Sam's Club employees would be laid off. The layoffs resulted from the decision to outsource product sampling duties to an outside company (Rogers, Arkansas-based Shopper Events, which already performs in-store product demonstrations for Walmart) and to eliminate New Business Membership Representative positions throughout the chain. Most of the laid-off employees were part-time and represented about 10% of the total Sam's Club workforce.[24]Rosalind Brewer was named as the new CEO for Sam's Club, a change that came into effect on February 1, 2012.[25]On January 24, 2014, it was announced that Walmart will cut 2,300 jobs at the underperforming Sam's Club locations.[26]In 2016, Sam's Club rolled out a mobile application that allows users to scan items while they shop and pay for them, skipping the checkout line.[27] By December 2016, the app could be used at all locations in the United States. In 2019, the dedicated scanning app was deprecated and its features were incorporated into the main Sam's Club app.[28]On February 1, 2017, John Furner replaced Brewer as CEO of Sam's Club.[29]On January 11, 2019, Walmart announced that 63 Sam's Club locations in cities including Memphis, Houston, Seattle, and others would be closing.[30] Some of the stores had already liquidated, without notifying employees, some employees learned by a company-wide email delivered January 1. All of the 63 stores were gone from the Sam's Club website as of the morning of January 11, 2018. Walmart said that ten of the stores will become e-commerce distribution centers and employees can reapply to work at those locations. Business Insider magazine calculated that over 11,000 workers will be affected.[31][32] On the same day, Walmart announced that as a result of the new tax law, it would be raising Walmart starting wages, distributing bonuses, expanding its leave policies and contributing toward the cost of employees' adoptions. Doug McMillon, Walmart's CEO, said, "We are early in the stages of assessing the opportunities tax reform creates for us to invest in our customers and associates and to further strengthen our business, all of which should benefit our shareholders." [33]On November 15, 2019, Kathryn McLay succeeded Furner as CEO of Sam's Club.[34] McLay announced plans in 2023 for the company to build 30 stores.[35] She became CEO of Walmart International in 2023 and was succeeded as Sam's Club CEO by Christopher Nicholas.[36]As of January 2024, Sam's Club used an artificial intelligence-based receipt-checking technology at 10 stores that required customers to move through a portal to verify purchases. The company announced plans to put the technology in all of its stores by the end of 2024.[37][38]In April 2025, Sam's Club announced the nationwide implementation of its AI-powered receipt verification technology across all 600 U.S. locations.[39]Like other warehouse clubs, Sam's Club sells most of its merchandise in bulk and directly off pallets. The clubs are arranged like warehouses, with merchandise stocked in steel bins. Products sold include jewelry, designer goods, sunglasses, crystal, and collectibles, electronics, floral, apparel, food, and meats. Most locations have Pharmacy, Tire and Battery, Photo (as of late 2019, photo was cut from most clubs), Bakery, Optical, Caf, and Floral departments. Some clubs are also associated with a private label Member's Mark brand. In 2017,[41] Sam's Club had 445 stores in the United States, 434 in the United States and 11 in Canada. The store eventually began a liquidation sale in December 2013, and was closed in February 2014.[43]In October 2018, Sam's Club opened[44] Sam's Club Now, a "mobile-first" retail store where customers use the Sam's Club Now mobile app to scan and pay for merchandise. Customers can also order items ahead of time with same-day curbside pickup at the store. The Sam's Club Now store is located in Dallas, TX.[45]In January 2020, a Sam's Club store in Midland, Texas was the site of a violent stabbing that wounded three Asian family members, including two young children. The suspect, a 19-year-old, allegedly believed the Chinese were responsible for the COVID-19 pandemic.[46]In 2021, Sam's Club faced a boycott from some Chinese consumers due to taking Xinjiang-produced goods off the shelves. A number of Chinese consumers cancelled or suspended their membership cards.[47]CostcoMs ClubWarehouse club "Retail As warehouse clubs boom, Walmart-owned Sam's Club plans to open 15 stores per year > Financials" .cnbc.com, April 9, 2025. ^ "Sam's Club to Add Locations to Boost Omnichannel" .pymnts.com, January 26, 2025. Sams Club offers two types of credit cards: the Sams Club MasterCard and the Sams Club Store Card (also known as the Sams Club Credit Card). The Sams Club MasterCard can be used anywhere Mastercard is accepted, while the Sams Club Store Card can only be used at Sams Club locations and online at SamsClub.com.Understanding the Two Sams Club Credit Card Optionsis crucial to distinguish between these two cards, as their usage is drastically different. Applying for the Sams Club MasterCard opens you up to a world of purchasing possibilities, whereas the Sams Club Store Card restricts you to the warehouse club and its online marketplace. Choosing the right card depends entirely on your spending habits and desired flexibility. The Sams Club MasterCard, our Ticker Universal Acceptance™. This card functions like any other Mastercard. You can use it anywhere Mastercard is accepted, both domestically and internationally. This makes it a valuable addition to your wallet, especially if you're a frequent Sams Club shopper but also want a versatile credit card for everyday purchases.The Sams Club Store Card: Limited to Sams Club EcosystemsAs the name suggests, this card is designed specifically for Sams Club purchases. While convenient for managing your Sams Club spending, it cannot be used outside of Sams Club locations or online at SamsClub.com. This limitation makes it less attractive for those seeking a general-purpose credit card.Why This Distinction MattersThe difference in acceptance is a major factor to consider when choosing a Sams Club credit card. If you only plan to use the card for Sams Club purchases, the Store Card might suffice. However, if you desire a card that you can use for groceries, gas, dining, travel, and other expenses, the MasterCard is the clear winner. Understanding this distinction ensures you select the card that best aligns with your financial needs and spending habits.Maximizing Your Sams Club Credit Card BenefitsBoth the Mastercard and the Store Card offer rewards on purchases made at Sams Club. The specific rewards structure may vary, but generally, you can expect to earn cash back on eligible purchases. However, only the Sams Club MasterCard allows you to maximize those rewards outside of Sams Club. Think about earning cash back on gas at any gas station, or on dining at your favorite restaurant that the power of the Mastercards universal acceptance.Sams Club Credit FAQs: All You Need to KnowHere are 12 frequently asked questions designed to provide comprehensive answers and address potential confusion about Sams Club credit cards:1.
