Map & Driving Directions Dear best away from home, thank you for reviewing our family restaurant. We appreciate your feedback. If you believe there is something we can improve, kindly send your feedback, along with your contact details, to customer-care@spur.co.za so you can guarantee the necessary changes are made More Everything you want is a lot of food, you have found your place. Missing in taste and flavor. The "soup" is strange, but pleasant to the palate. The salad was really good. Ribs were carbonized lacks taste and tenderness. The potatoes were dry and tasteless, as it was ... the cardboard-like garlic bread. Pilaf was dry and little cooked. No wine list. Waitress didn't know what they had. She had to write the list, but she didn't know prices. We went to the bar and the director, which seemed to look like His work, he said "we only have a type of wine, a J Spurs" another useful waitress (thanks!) Types and prices told me. She would have ordered a bottle, but her attitude of her ruined the moment. In equity, the liver and onions was as good as ice cream parlor. The decor was fun, but the bottom line was that the food, while more than plentiful, was seriously devoid of quality. More information. More
