They can often be cheesy or over-the-top, but I think that's what makes them awesome and there's no better day to watch romantic movies than on Valentine's Day. So grab your Valentine and some popcorn and stream on of these great romance movies. You might cry, you might laugh, but you'll be experiencing all the emotions together, and isn't that what Valentine's Day is all about? The Notebook Starring Ryan Gosling and Rachel McAdams, The Notebook is a very touching story of a couple whose relationship gets put on hold when World War II starts. The torrid love story is known to be a tear-jerker so it might be a good idea to keep the tissues on hand. Streaming on Netflix Pride and Prejudice This classic novel adaptation that came out in 2005 stars Keira Knightley as Elizabeth and Matthew Macfadyen as Darcy. The headstrong and independent Elizabeth is getting pressured into marriage, and it isn't until she meets Darcy that she starts to warm up to the idea. Problem is, Darcy is a bit of a stick in the mud! This period piece also landed an Oscar nomination for Keira Knightley. Streaming on Hulu 10 Things I Hate About You Party like it's 1999 with this classic romantic comedy starring the late Heath Ledger alongside Julia Stiles and a very young Joseph Gordon-Levitt. It's a classic high school tale of romance filled with laughs and plenty of romance to go around. It's a loose adaptation of Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew, so you know there's going to be plenty of love hijinx! Streaming on Disney+ The Big Sick One of my personal favorites, The Big Sick is based on the true story of how Kumail Nanjiani met and fell in love with his wife Emily. It's super touching, has amazingly funny moments, and definitely has the potential to make you cry the happiest of tears Streaming on Amazon Prime Up in the Air Okay, full confession, this movie isn't the most romantic and it's more about self-love than romantic love, but it's too good to leave off this list. George Clooney stars as Ryan, a frequent flyer who travels the country firing people from their jobs. He's cool, calm, unattached, and likes his life. But when his boss tells him to show his new coworkers, Natalie (played by Anna Kendrick), the ropes, he slowly starts to realize his life isn't as good as it seems. It was nominated for six Oscars! Streaming on Netflix A Star Is Born A remake of the classic tale, A Star Is Born stars an all-star cast including Bradley Cooper, Lady Gaga, and Dave Chapelle. It's a pretty tragic story that is likely going to make you cry, but all the best whirlwind romances do — don't they? Streaming on Hulu P.S. I Love You It's hard to move on when the person you love passes away, but as P.S. I Love You shows, it's worth it in the end. Hilary Swank stars in the lead role as she keeps getting letters from her dead husband (Gerard Butler) that send her on new adventures. The letters are attempting to guide her into the future, but her family worries they are keeping her tied to the past. Streaming on Netflix Zack and Miri Make a Porno As the title suggests, this love story is raunchy and very adult, but a ton of fun and will have you laughing out loud. Zack (Seth Rogen) and Miri (Elizabeth Banks) are roommates and best friends who can't afford their bills. They get a brilliant idea to film a porno in order to make ends meet — one problem they don't have money to hire enough talent. If you like raunchy fun, and can handle some slapstick humor, Zack and Miri Make a Porno is very entertaining. Streaming on Netflix What are your favorites? These are some of our favorite romantic movies to enjoy over Valentine's Day. What are your favorites? Did we miss any? Let us know in the comments! We may earn a commission for purchases using our links. Learn more. Long gone are the days when people had a huge collection of movies sitting in their home. The majority of the world has switched to a digital-only collection, but even that requires a huge amount of space. After all, a movie can take up as much as 2 GB of storage space. If you don't want to set up a massive in-home media server, you can just stream your films. Not sure where to stream from? Check out this list of the 10 best free movie apps to watch movies online. Also, be sure to check out our YouTube channel, where we posted a short video going through some of the apps mentioned below. Sony Crackle Sony Crackle is the single best option on the web for streaming movies. Not only does it have a tremendous collection, but it has a free movie app for almost every platform and device out there. All of the movies featured on Crackle have captions for the hearing impaired, and it usually doesn't require a login to watch the free movies on the platform. However, the movies are ad-supported, so you'll have to bear with those while you watch. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One Popcornflix Popcornflix is another popular option for watching movies for free. The app divides movies, TV shows, and viral videos into three different sections for easy browsing. The movie section is then further divided into categories like most popular, staff picks, drama, action, and more more. Popular films are on the app, so you aren't stuck watching obscure, lesser-known movies. Although Popcornflix is ad-sponsored, most of the ads are short, so they won't detract from your overall viewing experience. Popcornflix is available for iPhone, Android, Roku, Apple TV, and more. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One Tubi Most movie apps require an account, but if you are tired of signing up for services, Tubi is the free movie app for you. You can create an account or watch movies as a guest. The majority of films on Tubi are streamed in high quality, so you don't have to worry about losing quality because of compression. Although there are a lot of older films, you can also find newer movies on Tubi. Movies are divided into broad categories, but you can also take advantage of an extensive breakdown of films across dozens of different sections. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One Vudu Vudu is Walmart's answer to Netflix. While the service is better known for at-home movie rentals, there are hundreds of ad-supported movies you can watch entirely for free. There are a few downsides to the service, but they balance out. The main issue is that you have to log in to watch any movies, and many free movies move off the service relatively quickly. On the other hand, the number of high-quality movies makes a little hassle worthwhile. Vudu also adds new movies on a regular basis, so you aren't likely to run out of films to entertain you anytime soon. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One SnagFilms While many of the streaming services on this list are great for finding family-friendly, entertaining films, SnagFilms is better suited for people that enjoy documentaries and movies that make you think. SnagFilms sorts its movies into different categories like "Filmanthropy," "Climate Change & The Environment," and "Refugee & Immigrant Stories." If you're looking for classic films and great documentaries, SnagFilms is the way to go. Perhaps best of all, the frequency of ads is smaller versus other services. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindleXbox One FilmRise FilmRise is home to many classic and cult favorite movies that might not be on other services. If you want to watch movies that may have been passed over the year they came out in favor of more popular titles, check out FilmRise. There are a lot of odd, obscure movies, but if you're willing to sort through the large number of titles you can find a lot of hidden gems. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindleXbox One YouTube Most everyone has YouTube on their phone already, but not everyone realizes that YouTube has a huge number of free movies. Sure, you can rent (and even buy) new, popular films, but if you're willing to deal with advertisements you can see dozens of films for free. It can be a bit difficult to search out the free movies, but YouTube actually curates a playlist of movies that makes it easy to find the free choices. Many of the free films are geared towards children or are more obscure titles, but if you find yourself craving something new to watch, exploring YouTube can be a lot of fun. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One PlutoTV Don't let the name fool you—Pluto TV may offer dozens of channels of free, ad-supported television, but you can also find movies on the service. More specifically, you can find channels dedicated to airing movies, like the 007 channel, the Pluto Spotlight channel, and the Pluto Movies channel. While you can't choose what film is being aired at any given time, this gives you a free Starz-like experience. The Pluto TV free movie app is available on almost every device and is a great option for cord cutters. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindlePS4Xbox One Viki Do you find yourself closely following the world of K-Pop? Does the idea of drama excite you? If you said yes to both of these questions, check out Viki. It's a free movie streaming service for mobile devices that gives users access to a wide range of Korean, Japanese, and Chinese cinema. Don't worry if you don't speak the language; Viki offers subtitles in multiple languages. While this is definitely a more niche offering, Viki is great if you want something a bit out of the norm. Get it here: iOS/Apple TVAndroidRokuKindle Sling TV While Sling TV is most often spoken of as a way to get live TV without the need for a cable subscription, you can actually find quite a few free movies to watch on the service. Sling TV shows newer, popular films as well as older titles. The interface isn't set up for easy browsing, however, so finding it takes a bit of searching—and you have to find free movies, not those that require a subscription to watch.
