The New IELTS Speaking Actual Tests 2020 Most candidates like to read model answers as a very powerful way to get the best possible Band score when they are preparing for the IELTS speaking module. This new ebook of IELTS Speaking Actual Tests provides model answers for IELTS Speaking Actual Tests that appear in the IELTS speaking module. Let's take some samples: IELTS Speaking Actual Tests Part 1 (Sample # 1) The examiner will ask you a face to face interview for 4-5 minutes. He/ she asks you 12 questions based on 3 Topics. These questions are about yourself, your life and your country. Let's take an example. How often do you go online? What do you use the internet for? How do you get online? Do you have your own computer? What's your favorite website? Do you think children should be allowed unsupervised access to the internet? IELTS Speaking Actual Tests Part 2 (Sample # 1) You will talk for 1-2 mins with rounding off questions for 1 min. Describe an important technological product you bought. You should say: What it was; How you used it; Why you bought it; And explain why you think it is important. Suggested Answer : I consider myself lucky to have a job in a multinational company, which caused me to buy a laptop for my ordinary use at home. I'm very satisfied with this purchase, so I would love to share the story. Well, let me give you some background. I am the eldest daughter of my family and live with them here in India. I recently got a job which requires me to complete digital tasks online. Besides, it has become impossible for me to use the internet with my old cell phone. Considering everything, I have bought a laptop from the Dell brand shop online. Though I saved a portion of money from sources like private tuition for the laptop for a long time, the best opportunity came when I got appointed to this multinational company. I added the remaining from my salary and brought the laptop home. This is the age of technology and using the internet with mobile phones is not very efficient. Someone may browse the internet or social networking websites temporarily on a mobile network, but that is not suitable for any large scale jobs. Often I have to perform some official tasks using the internet and this is almost impossible by using the cell phone. Besides, I like watching movies for recreational purposes and my cell phone is unable to come with such support for me. Moreover, my parents are devoutly religious and love listening to guided prayers on there. Considering all such matters, I decided to get a laptop but unfortunately could not manage the entire amount. So, when I received my paycheck, I bought it right away! I bought the laptop last month and have been using for around three weeks. By this time, the laptop has proved its worth. It holds an outstanding charge- usually about 7 hours. Besides, my parents are also using it and they are happy too. I planned to use the internet modem but my father has arranged a broadband internet connection. So, using the internet is no longer a problem for us. I have two younger sisters and they are also careful about using the laptop. They mostly use the laptop when I am not home and watch cartoons and animated movies on the internet. My mother takes care of the laptop and she is responsible for keeping it safe and clean from dust. I was really happy to buy this laptop. It may sound strange to some that it was a dream for me. I have realized the necessity of a laptop when I was at my university. I was unable to complete projects and assignments. I had to rely (depend) on my friends who had their own laptops. Though they cordially allowed me to use their laptops, I felt uncomfortable most of the time. On the other side, my family was not fortunate enough to spend some extra bucks(dollars) for me to buy a laptop. So, I made a plan to make this dream come true. After lots of struggles, I got the job and finally have my own laptop. All in all, I couldn't live without it now! IELTS Speaking Actual Tests Part 3 (Sample # 1) Now the examiner will start asking you questions about your topic for 4 to 5 mins How much has technology improved how we communicate with each other? This is a controversial (debatable) topic. On one hand, communication had opened up endless windows of opportunities to reach a broader spectrum (range) of people, keep in touch (contact) with people better, and just all in all made communication more accessible. For example, I lived across the world, but I still felt close to my family, thanks to FaceTime. On the other hand, I believe it has had a negative effect on how we communicate with others. Where in the past we used to value discussing matters at face value, we now hide behind computer screens. I even feel I am scared to confront people face to face when I could make it easier over the phone or via text message/email. All in all, there are positives and negatives to it. Do you agree that there are still many more major technological innovations to be made? Of course! Endless, actually. There is more that will be created than we can even imagine at this particular moment in time. Looking back, I could never have dreamt in my wildest dreams all that is accessible to us nowadays. I'm anxious to see what will be available to us in the future! I can imagine hologram (digital) image video chats! Do you think people rely too much on technology? At times! I think people are becoming incapable of doing things the old school way, and with that said losing real skill. For example, I am a teacher and we rely so heavily on videos, smartboards, audio files, etc, that when technology fails us, we are completely lost. Furthermore, I must be connected to my phone, email, and text messages at all times to even function. Moreover, I see that children are starting to not be able to enjoy life without a tablet or phone, whereas kids enjoyed playing outside and getting dirty in the past. So yes, in this world where a wifi connection can fail us in an instant, people often rely too heavily on it. Could you suggest some reasons why some people are deciding to reduce their use of technology? I'm seeing that people are starting to realize that they can't enjoy the moment they are in because they are always glued to(attached to) their phones. Furthermore, they want to reduce the amount of time they stare at at a computer screen all day, as it is straining and damaging to our eyes. Moreover, parents want to try to manage the time their kids spent playing video games, encouraging them to get more fresh air. With the app that records the amount of time that you spent on social media a day, it's a bit shameful to see how much time we waste away, so people are taking action against it.
